GAS HOUSE
CASES CALLEDTwo Defendants Found Not Guilty and Their Discharge
OrderedThird Defendant, Not a
Striker, Gets Suspended
Sentence to Reformatory

An array of counsel were present in the police court this morning for the trial of the so-called "gas house" cases, involving alleged offenses by strikers. The case of John McCaffery, former employee at the gas plant, was first heard. John Beland, who claimed to have been attacked by the defendant and two unknown men, was the sole government witness. He stated that he had been working for Daniel K. Walker, a contractor, who has done work for the gas company. He has known McCaffery for eight or ten years, he declared. On the morning of May 30, he said, about 8:30 o'clock, McCaffery approached him in the company of two other men and remarked, with a vile epithet, "So you're working in the gas works?" The defendant then punched him, said witness, knocking him down after which he was kicked twice, once under the jaw and once in the ribs.

The defense consisted of an attempt to establish an alibi. McCaffery took the stand and told of going to the city hall to work on the morning of the alleged assault. He stayed there, as it was raining, until after the time he is charged with assaulting Beland. Thos. J. Garvey, assistant superintendent of streets, said that on the morning of May 30, McCaffery answered the call of duty soon after 1 o'clock. The witness told of seeing the defendant

SELECTING JURY FOR MURDER TRIAL

DEBHAM, June 1.—Three prospective jurors were seated when the examination of talesmen was resumed today preliminary to the trial of Nicola Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti for the killing of a paymaster and his guard at South Braintree a year ago. Virtually all of a panel of 150 talesmen had been exhausted yesterday and last night in obtaining three men qualified and acceptable to try the men for murder. Another panel of similar size was available today and 150 were under orders to report tomorrow, but it was considered doubtful whether this aggregate list of 500 would develop the 12 men to fill the jurybox. As a result officials were ready to inaugurate measures to bring more men before the court for examination.

Since the panel of similar size was given the forenoon but all were excused or challenged. Several of them were allowed to go because of physical disability.

The three jurors accepted thus far are Wallace R. Hersey, a real estate dealer of Weymouth; John E. Ganley, grocer, of Weymouth; and Frank R. Waugh, a machinist of Quincy.

Pelts of coyotes were used during the war as trench coats for British soldiers.

MRS. WADE TESTIFIES AT TRIAL OF MRS. NOTT

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 1.—Mrs. Mary Seery Wade today took the stand at the trial of Mrs. Ethel Hutchins Nott, charged with murdering her husband, George E. Nott, last August.

Mrs. Wade—whose husband, Elwood B. Wade, recently was hanged for his part in the crime—testified that after she had introduced Wade to Mrs. Nott, she found they already knew each other. She testified she once had called on Mrs. Nott and obtained a promise that she would not permit Wade to continue his practice of visiting her.

Two women who had been confined at the county jail while Mrs. Nott was there, were called to identify notes written by Mrs. Nott to Wade, while both were in the county jail.

GIRLS' CITY CLUB
IN NEW QUARTERS

The Girls' City Club moved today into its new permanent headquarters in the Merrimack gardens. Elaborate and tasteful decorations have been put up, blue cretonne hangings furnishing the color scheme. The dancing floor will be utilized for the many parties which the organization holds during the winter season, while desks for the officials have also been placed in the hall. Director Alice Sullivan stated today that a program of summer sports, including baseball, tennis and lawn hockey, is being arranged for the warm weather.

KELLY MAKES NINTH HOMER

NEW YORK, June 1.—George Kelly of the New York Nationals today made his ninth home run of the season, equalling the total of Meusel of the Philadelphia Nationals.

Kelly's ninth was made in the fifth inning of today's first game with Philadelphia, with one man on.

Abbreviated feminine costumes were the subject of comment by Judge Louis S. Cox in the superior court today during the progress of the trial of the suit of Fanny B. Wells of Lowell for divorce from Leroy A. Wells, on the grounds of desertion and gross wanton and cruel non-support. A witness for the defendant testified that while Mrs. Wells was living with her husband in 1917 "she had only clothes enough to cover the law." "It required a good deal in those days, but not so very much now," remarked the judge.

Mrs. Wells, testifying in her own behalf, asserted that her husband had behaved nicely toward her for a short time after her marriage. She said that he then began to drink and would go away and leave her for several days at a time with nothing to eat in the house.

LOWELL MAN MISSING

Police and American Legion
Officials Seek Veteran of World War

The police and officials of the American Legion throughout the state are searching for James Adie, a Lowell veteran of the world war and a victim of shell shock, who has been missing from his home in this city since February 27.

On that date, he left Lowell for Boston to undergo an examination before the federal war risk board in Boston, preparatory to receiving financial assistance from the government due him as a disabled veteran. Since then, no word has been received from him.

Adie was 30 years of age, of medium complexion, with blue eyes and weighed 120 pounds. He is five feet, four inches in height. He bears a wound on his left wrist. Anybody who can give any information as to his whereabouts is asked to get in touch with E. B. Hart at 135 Cross street. Investigation at the office of the federal board in Boston has disclosed the fact that there is no record of Adie making a visit there on the date in question.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Approximately two-thirds of the wage increase granted railroad employees last July by the railroad labor board was ordered deducted beginning July 1, in the board's decision announced today. From the increase last year of $600,000,000 a year in salaries of railroad labor, nearly $400,000,000 will be cut, it is estimated.

In the case of the general class of maintenance of way laborers, the entire increase of 3 1/2 cents an hour was withdrawn, while in other classes having the larger number of employees, the cuts ranged from 13 to 8 and from 10 to 6 cents an hour, as compared with the award of last July.

Although the wage cuts are to apply only on the 104 roads which had filed petitions for the decrease, the board's announcement said that application of

FIRE AT MEN WALKING
TOWARD BILLERICA

BURLINGTON, Mass., June 1.—Reporting that two men walking toward Billerica today were escaped convicts, Charles Perry, a farmer, called out neighbors, got a gun, ordered the men to stop and when they refused, he fired five shots. The men broke into a run and footed it toward the farm where they were working, while the farmers gathered round and organized a posse for search, and Perry called for help from the Lexington and Bedford police. State institutions which were notified, said no prisoners answering the description of the men were missing.

of Armed White Men

TULSA, Okla., June 1.—"We can't use the equipment we have and for that reason we have not asked for more apparatus from other cities," R. Alder, fire chief said today. "It would mean a firm's life to turn a stream of water on one of those negro buildings."

"They shot at us all morning when we were trying to do something but none of my men was hit. There is not a chance in the world to get through that mob into the negro district."

Chief Alder indicated that he was prepared to call for outside assistance in case it became necessary.

All persons not deputized as special officers were ordered to disarm in a proclamation issued shortly before noon by Mayor Evans. Persons carrying guns will be arrested.

Detachments of guardsmen were scattered throughout the city prepared to meet all emergencies with machine guns ready for action. Guards surrounded the armory while others assisted in rounding up negroes and segregating them in the jail, convention hall, baseball park and other places which had been turned into prison camps.

State troops under the command of Adjutant General C. F. Barrett arrived at 9 o'clock to take charge of the situation, augmenting local units of guardsmen who were called out last night.

The first attempts to fire the negro quarter were made about 1:30 o'clock this morning when white men openly threatened to destroy the locality. Two houses at Archer and Boston streets, used by more than 50 negroes as a garrison, were set afire at that time and an alarm was turned in. Efforts of the fire department to lay hose were stopped by a crowd of armed white men and the department returned to its station.

The attempt to destroy the negro quarter by fire was resumed five hours later, when almost simultaneously flames burst forth from doors and windows of frame shacks along Archer street. Dense clouds of black smoke enveloped the locality. Linder coxes of the smoke screen armed men in motor cars and on foot threw a cordon about the place and occasionally shots gave warning that the conflict still raged.

As the fire enveloped the houses, negroes darted out from flaming doorways with upraised hands, shouting, "Don't shoot!" As they dashed through the smoke they were ordered to surrender and were quickly removed to prison camps.

To Disarm All Citizens
TULSA, Okla., June 1.—All available national guardsmen, gathered here from Oklahoma City and other towns, were placed on duty at once in the negro quarter and orders were issued to disarm all citizens.

TO REPORT OUT
VOLSTEAD BILL

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The house judiciary committee agreed today to report out the Volstead bill, which would prohibit sale of beer on physician's prescription for use by the sick. As approved the bill also would make the Volstead enforcement act apply to Hawaii and the Virgin Islands, but not the Philippines.

The provisions accepted included tightening up clause to prohibit importation of liquors until the present stock held under government supervision has been exhausted.

Chairman Volstead was directed to endeavor to have a bill called up for passage by the house immediately so as to make it effective before the new proposed beer regulations could be promulgated by the commissioner of internal revenue.

HUMORIST WINS DERBY

Viscount Astor's Craig An
Eran—Thousands at Race

EPSOM DOWNS, England, June 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Today's Derby, considered by racing men one of the most open turf events in recent years, was won by J. B. Joel's Humorist, which had been heavily backed at prices ranging from 12 to 1 against the starting price of 5 to 1 against Humorist finished a neck ahead of Viscount Astor's Craig An Eran. The time was two minutes 45 seconds.

Joseph Watson's Lemonora, in third place, was three lengths behind Craig An Eran, while the favorite, Alan Brock, owned by Sir J. Buchanan, was fourth.

Roheman, an American horse, was among the also rans.

Thousands of people spent the night in towns near Epsom and came to the Downs early in the morning. Others who started from London at daybreak found the roads jammed with traffic, which at noon the giant airship R-33, one of the aircraft watching the congestion from overhead for the authorities, reported by wireless.

The unusually heavy road traffic was due to the fact that on account of the coal strike there were no special trains a thing which had not happened since 1838, when trains first ran to Epsom.

WILL KEEP BRIDGE
OPEN TO TRAFFIC

An informal conference relative to the reconstruction of Central bridge and the plans of the Engineering Service & Construction Co. relative to keeping a portion of the bridge open to traffic at all times was held this noon in Mayor Perry D. Thompson's office at city hall.

The company doing the work was represented by William A. Driscoll and Thomas H. Mahony, a Boston attorney. The municipal council was represented by Mayor Thompson and Commissioners James E. Lonnely and George E. Marchand, City Engineer.

$35,733,000 FROM GERMANY

First Instalment of Reparation Payment to Allies Now in N. Y. Bank

Payments Made in Transfer of Banking Credits of Four Financial Houses

NEW YORK, June 1.—The first instalment of Germany's reparation payment to the allies to be made through the United States—$35,733,000—was today in the Federal Reserve bank of New York. The German government completed the deposit through Hallgarten & Co., the Equitable Trust Co., Spayer & Co., and the Guaranty Trust Co.

The payments were not made in actual cash or gold, but in the transfer of the banking credits of the four financial houses. The bankers for several days have been sending to the Federal Reserve bank a series of their own checks against the balances of the German government in their institutions. The credit thus transferred was placed in the Federal Reserve bank, to the credit of the Bank of England and the Bank of France.

Financial men today recalled that Germany recently had been buying dollars by the sale of exchange abroad, causing a tremendous decline in the exchange of all countries. This dollar credit acquired by Germany was believed to have been assembled in New York to meet the allied reparation payments. The amount thus acquired in the past week alone was estimated by various bankers as from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Another factor in the assemblage of German-owned dollars here was declared to be United States currency spent in Germany by the American army of occupation. Several bales of paper money have arrived from Hamburg in the last few weeks and returning soldiers have declared that American money disappeared completely after it was once spent in a German shop.

About a month ago, the reparations commission announced that payments made by Germany would be exchanged into the American dollar as the exchange elated subject to fluctuation.

CUDDY ON TRIAL

Accused of Attempt to Bribe Watch and Ward Man

SALEM, June 1.—In the superior criminal court yesterday afternoon, Judge Fosdick presiding, a jury was empaneled in the case of George F. Cuddy of Lawrence, charged with the charge of illegal gratuities to an agent of the Watch and Ward society in connection with the proposed lottery raids by the agents of the organization.

The defendant was associated with his brother, John E. Cuddy, Jr., in conducting boxing exhibitions in Lawrence.

District Attorney Donnell says that the government will call witnesses to show that through the offering of alleged bribes the defendant attempted to secure the services of an agent of the Watch and Ward society to be protected from raids by receiving bribes. Evidence as to the conduct of a lottery and alleged illegal sales of liquor will also be submitted, the government announced.

PLAN IMPROVEMENTS IN WEST CENTRALVILLE

The first step toward proposed improvements in West Centralville was taken last evening at a mass meeting of the residents of the district held under the auspices of the Centralville Social club in its quarters in West Sixth street. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing matters pertaining to the welfare of the district, particularly the elimination of the Alken street dump and the improvements of streets in general and although it was an 11th hour affair, there was a large attendance and all present were unanimous in endorsing a movement, that, it is hoped, will bring about better conditions in that section of the city.

The meeting was presided over by

MAXIME LEPINE
Chairman

Maxime Lepine, a prominent resident of Centralville, who briefly explained the purpose of the gathering, saying, it is high time that the residents and taxpayers of the district get together and protest against conditions that are now existing and that have been existing in the locality for years. He referred particularly to the disagreeable condition of the dump and the bad condition of the streets in that locality. In the course of the meeting it was stated that the members of the Crescent Hill association is ready to lend a hand in any movement that will have for its object the improvement of the district across the river.

Several of those present expressed themselves in favor of forming an improvement association in an endeavor to have the streets of the district repaired and the Alken street dump abolished. Among those who spoke were former Alderman John H. Beauvais, Contractor Jacques Boisvert, Charles L. Cordeau of the Cordeau Drug company, John T. Burns and many others.

At the close of the meeting it was voted to prepare several petitions for the improvement of the district, which will be circulated and later presented to the municipal council. It was announced that last evening's meeting was the first in a series of its kind, which will be held in the course of the summer.

The first sewing machine on official record was made by Thomas Saint, an Englishman, in 1790.

MEETING OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

Residents of Highlands Want Bungalow for Domestic Science Classes

Committee Favors Plain Bungalow—Will Cost Between $6000 and $8000

More than 50 residents of the Highlands appeared before the school committee at its regular meeting last evening to request that the committee make provisions for the erection of a bungalow adjacent to the Charles W. Morey school for the use of domestic science classes. After hearing the prayer of the petitioners the committee voted to favor the project and instructed Chairman Thomas B. Delaney and Supt. Hugh J. Molloy to appear before the municipal council and ask for an appropriation to erect the building. The cost of the bungalow is estimated at between $6000 and $8000.

The petitioners who were present last evening, a majority of them women, were backed by a petition bearing 600 names. The petitioners pointed out that it would be more feasible to erect a new building now rather than fit up one of the regular class rooms in the annex which is now nearing completion and face the possibility of having to give up the room in a year or two for the use of regular classes.

The petitioners, through one of their spokesmen, Edward J. Tierney, assured the school committee that they would support it in any effort it made before members of the municipal council to secure the necessary funds. Chairman Delaney, of the school board, said that the board had promised at the beginning of the year to live within its budget and as far as getting any money from that source was concerned, the project was out of the question. He felt the committee should be cautious in spending money on this project in view of the fact that there are so many schools in dire need of roomy class work.

The petitioners, on the other hand, said that domestic science training was compulsory and that the cost of erecting a bungalow would not be appreciably greater than that of fitting up a class room for the work. Those who spoke in favor of the project besides Mr. Tierney were William W. Deane, headmaster of the Morey school; Lewis E. MacBrayne and Supt. Molloy.

After the discussion, Mr. Warner moved that the committee go on record as favoring the bungalow for domestic science classes and that the chairman and superintendent be instructed to appear before the municipal council and ask for an appropriation to cover the same. It was so voted.

Mr. Markham then moved that the chairman also place before the council the need for funds to provide suitable accommodations in other sections of the city and the motion was carried. The committee granted Miss Dorothy Farnsworth a fourth grade certificate as a kindergarten teacher and Miss M. Catherine Gallagher was granted a second grade certificate. The petition of Peter Gulesian, teacher of manual training in the local department, that he be allowed to teach manual training in North Billerica next year was denied. The resignations of Fred Albionson, a teacher at the high school, was received and a vote of thanks for faithful service extended. A recommendation from the superintendent that the teachers of the continuation school be allowed half a month's salary to attend a summer session at Hyannis from August 12 to 31, was laid on the table pending further investigation.

The committee also discussed the proposed summer camp for schoolboys to be held at Long Sought For pond during the summer months and the examination for teachers to be held here June 25.

DISMISSES DR. DONLAN'S PETITION

BOSTON, June 1.—The full bench of the supreme court, yesterday, dismissed the proceedings brought by Dr. Charles E. Donlan, former superintendent of the Long Island almshouse and hospital to restrain the city council from continuing to hold a hearing on charges against him.

Dr. Donlan contended he could elect to have the charges heard by the board of trustees in charge of the hospital or the city council, and since he had made no election the city council was without authority to act. He claimed his right as a world war veteran.

If You Want More Bodily and Mental Vigor

Try Me I Only Require One Minute

of your time each day. I have helped give thousands of weak, run-down, nervous folks, increased strength and endurance, in two weeks' time, in many instances.

I am not a doctor but PHYSICIANS HAVE OFTEN ADVISED PEOPLE TO TRY ME. Former UNITED STATES SENATORS, United States Army Generals, Judges of U. S. Courts and many well known people have availed themselves of my help.

STRONG MEN, ATHLETES, BRAIN WORKERS—they know what I can do when they want the "stay there" strength and endurance that wins.

WOMEN WHO ARE WEAK, nervous and irritable as a result of overwork, worry or household drudgery have often obtained most surprising relief from me.

When, as a result of iron starvation, you get up feeling tired in the morning, when you cannot longer do your day's work without being all fagged out at night; when your digestion all goes wrong; or you have pains across the back and your face looks pale and drawn, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakness you contract some serious disease, but try me. I only take one minute of your time each day. I am NUTRIENT IRON—organic iron. I am like the iron in your face looks pale and drawn, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakness you contract some serious disease, but try me. ## EXPECT MANY VISITORS

Annual International Supreme Convention of San Francisco K. of C., Big Event

San Francisco Knights of Columbus are making elaborate preparations for the 39th annual international supreme convention of the order, to be held in San Francisco, Aug. 2, 3, 4. Numerous committees are busy at work planning for the accommodation and entertainment of the 20,000 visitors expected in that city for the supreme council and every detail is being carefully followed to make the coming convention the greatest and most successful in the history of the Knights of Columbus.

Four hundred and fifty delegates will attend the supreme convention, from all parts of the United States, Philippines, Alaska, Canada, Cuba, Porto Rico and Mexico, and we understand that hundreds of inquiries have already been received by the general committee at San Francisco, as to transportation rates, hotel accommodations, etc.

All transcontinental railroads will issue round trip tickets to San Francisco for the convention, good for 30 days' stay-over if necessary, at one and one-third the one-way cost. A list of popular San Francisco hotels and their tariffs during supreme convention week is being published in the June issue of "The Columbian," but those desirous of securing further data or immediate information as to any accommodations or arrangements they wish to have made for them at San Francisco, will receive a prompt response by writing the chairman of the committee especially concerned.

The program for the supreme convention, as tentatively announced, is as follows:

Monday, Aug. 1.—Arrival of visiting officers and delegates; all trains will be met by St. Francis assembly, fourth degree, the official reception committee for the supreme convention. Registration of visitors at supreme council headquarters, St. Francis hotel.

Entertainment, dancing and open house at San Francisco council, No. 615 and California council, No. 530.

Tuesday, Aug. 2.—Solemn Pontifical high mass, 10 a. m., at St. Mary's cathedral, Van Ness avenue and O'Farrell street. His Grace, Most Rev. Edward J. Hanna, D.D., archbishop of San Francisco, celebrant.

1 p. m.—Opening business session of the supreme convention; Italian and Colonial ballrooms, St. Francis hotel.

7:30 p. m.—Grand reception and ball. Civic Auditorium. Addresses by Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, Mayor James Rolph, Jr., Gov. William D. Stephens, commanding officers for the Pacific division of United States army and navy, Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty and other distinguished members of clergy and laity. Military band concert, dancing in two large ballrooms.

Wednesday, Aug. 3.—10 a. m.—Business session of supreme council, at St. Francis hotel. 8 p. m.—Theatre party for visiting knights, delegates and guests of the Knights of Columbus of California. 8 p. m.—Business session of supreme council, St. Francis hotel.

Thursday, Aug. 4.—10 a. m.—Final business session of supreme council, St. Francis hotel. 1 p. m.—Excursion for visiting knights, delegates and ladies to Mt. Tamalpais, over the crookedest railroad in the world, as guests of the Knights of Columbus of California.

During supreme convention week, open house will be maintained afternoons and evenings, at the clubhouses of San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Hayward councils in Alameda county; San Rafael council in Marin county; San Mateo and San Jose councils in California and San Francisco councils will hold entertainment and dancing every night of the convention, at their clubhouses.

Sightseeing tours over the beautiful city of San Francisco and magnificent surrounding country, will be a feature of the convention; a fleet of automobiles being at the disposal of the visiting knights and friends.

Axel Says: "I'm not a carpenter, so I'm not supposed to know a whole lot about steel, but I do know there's a big difference in steel quality."

"I find saws are like folks. Some are too cranky to have around, while others are good natured, willing and never balk when half through a job."

He is right. You will find our saws, as well as all our hardware, always willing and go right through the job without balking.

FEARFUL ORDERS FOR BIG CIRCUS CLOWNS

There's something new under the white tops this season. At least, there is with Sells-Floto circus—"second largest show on earth," coming to Lowell on Wednesday, June 8. The street! Something new, and it has to do with the clowns. This year they've told the "Joys," so big top art-terms the chalk-faced cut-ups this year, to repeat they've told the clown

OPERA HOUSE

Lola Fisher, charming op-star, with William G. C. in "The House of the Rising Sun," will be the attraction of the Opera House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The production is a new one, and the actress has decided to play on all matters pertaining to her profession. In fact, Miss Fisher is very well informed on all matters of the stage and is a very interesting person to hear. She is a young person with a brain and an urgent desire to use it. This is a public affair, and in the present day and age, Miss Fisher expressed herself as follows:

"The idea of spreading broadcast information about the personal life of an actor or actress is very distasteful to me," said Miss Fisher. "The publicity that comes to me through intelligent criticism of one's work by the dramatic reviewer is an entirely different matter. That is the highest type of exploitation—helpful and constructive discussion of the artist's contribution to the art. It is not only entertaining and instructive but it is of great assistance to the actor. I believe, strangely too, in the discriminating use of good photographs. But I think an actor or actress should be permitted to censor every picture used. I have seen such hideous pictures of my friends, dear, pretty, sweet girls, and have felt it very unfair to give the public such an unflattering impression of their appearance. Wholesale advertising of the likes and dislikes of the actors, fake stories of love romances, which thank heaven are now almost obsolete, rumored engagements to go out in the three rings and two stages and in the hippodrome track and be funny. Honestly, every one of the 50 has been told to be funny, and if he can't be funny, so each one has been instructed, he must not go out before all the people and mistake 'em with his starched pantaloons and peaked cap. These are the management's orders. Fact is, the orders read: 'Every clown with this show is hired to get laughs. Any clown not getting one or more laughs in each clown display will be fined $100 for the first offense, $200 for the second offense, and, for the third offense, he'll have his clown suit taken away from him for one performance. Offenses after that will be handled without mercy.'

and others of a like nature, circulated at times by badly advised publicity directors, to me seems most distasteful and degrading. At best it only satisfies a morbid curiosity which should be discouraged. Then, too, the public, nowadays, is such a wise little bird—it was its head knowingly and only believes what it feels like. Anyway—so why waste time?"

There's a good advance sale already reported. The place should play to capacity, audiences at each performance for it's a big production, with big stage stars, and not on a big way. If Lowell supports it, Lowell will have a better big stage production in the future. The rest is being made.

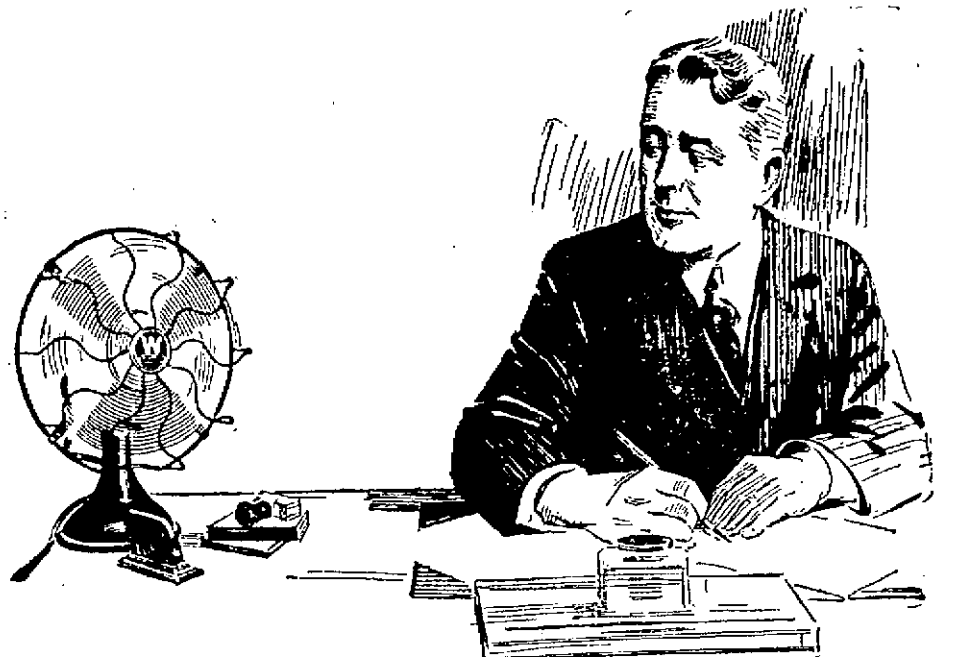

London Masters, who lived at a frame residence hotel. The inevitable happened—they fell in love with each other. When they had discovered and acknowledged their love, they decided they must avoid each other in the future. But in the meantime, gossip had been busy weaving her slimy net about their friendship and the husband had been made aware of his wife's liking for young Masters' society at just about the time they had discovered their love and decided they must repress it.

Away at last to his neglect, Dr. Talbot, himself. When they acknowledged the truth of his accusation, he believes he can yet save his wife and orders Masters not only never to see Madeline again, but to leave San Francisco forever. Despite their promises at this death-blow to Masters' promising career, Dr. Talbot insists and Masters leaves.

From then on the plot becomes even more absorbing and the denouement is most unusual. "See My Lawyer" is a super-special comedy drama of a clean and enterprising type. It is bound to appeal to all who see it. A comedy and the International News will round out the bill.

B. F. KELTH'S THEATRE

Signor Frisco, the genius of the eye-brow, can wring an audience's wonderment, as is being shown in every performance at the B. F. Kelth theatre, this week. He plays about everything that is playable, whether comic or tragic, and does his work very well. His range of Gilfoyle and Vance is a remarkably beautiful woman, and Will Mahoney, the new kind of comedian, achieves a knockout

WOOD-FORBES MISSION RETURNS TO MANILA

MANILA, May 30. (By the Associated Press.)—The mission composed of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood and W. Cameron Forbes which was sent to the Philippine Islands by President Harding to investigate conditions, returned to Manila today traveling 13 days by train, automobile, launch, horseback and steamer through the northern section of Luzon Island.

The mission held scores of public meetings and private conferences, listening to the views of the natives regarding independence for the Philippines, examining local financial affairs, sanitation, schools, public works, the administration of justice and agricultural conditions.

After visiting the central provinces of Luzon Island, the mission separated. Gen. Wood traveled through the northern Pacific provinces, while Mr. Forbes went through the mountainous provinces among the non-Christian tribes. The commissioners united again on the west coast of Luzon.

Both commissioners said that their sojourns everywhere had been marked by the friendliest feelings of the natives for Americans. At the public

SAT UP ALL ONE NIGHT WEIGHING THE QUESTION IN HER MIND, SHE SAYS

Miss Sadie Ladoux of 65 Tremont Street, Lowell, Took All Night To Decide Whether She Would Take CINOX Or Give Up All Treatments—She Is Now Well

"I sat up one night because I was so discouraged about my health and decided that I would try CINOX as a last resort and I am awfully glad I did," said Miss Ladoux.

"I was all run down and tired out and seemed to do every thing in a half-hearted way.

"I vomited after meals and had a bad taste in my mouth all the time and suffered dreadfully from gas on my stomach.

"Many a day I could hardly drag myself around and as the days passed by I kept getting worse and weaker and my blood was thin and watery.

"I have taken three bottles of CINOX and today am in best of health and if no more could be had I would not take one hundred dollars for the bottle I have in my possession."

CINOX is being demonstrated in Lowell by an expert at Dows Drug Store, Merrimack square and is for sale by Lowell Pharmacy and Druggists everywhere.—Adv.

hearings they said, virtually all of the speakers among the Christian population favored independence for the islands with a protectorate by the United States. Only a few speakers advocated complete separation, while occasionally speakers opposed independence in any form at present.

Many natives, especially property owners, told the commissioners in private conferences that they believed the present relations between the United States and the Philippines should continue indefinitely.

Leaders of the non-Christian tribes, comprising approximately 350,000 people in the mountainous provinces, expressed to the mission the warmest friendship for the United States and opposed independence.

Throughout the coast provinces while a desire for independence with a protectorate was strong, the people seemed more vitally concerned with obtaining communication with the outside world. The present means of transportation into that region, with its rich tobacco industry, is only by water and mountain trail.

Perhaps the most insistent appeal of all those made for immediate independence was expressed by speakers at public meetings in the central provinces of Tarrac and Pangasinan.

In a statement read at public meetings in the various provinces the commissioners emphasized that the mission had no authority to authorize independence and that the entire question was solely in the hands of congress and President Harding.

After spending a week in Manila to study the mass of data collected in the journey through the northern provinces, the mission will begin a trip through southern Luzon.

house or money to buy it. She said that a few months after marriage she was compelled to go to work to support herself, and the doctor who married a doctor who told her that if she did not stop working she would have a nervous breakdown.

Sick For Three Months

When she told her husband of the doctor's statement, witness said, he told her he did not care if she did break down; that she would have to support herself. Later, she said, she was sick for three months.

A decree was ordered in the case after a default had been entered. Edward J. Tierney appeared as counsel for the libellant.

An echo of New York's famous Stillman case, that has aroused interest from one side of the continent to the other, came to the court today when Joseph Eugene DeSousa of Somerville, seeking a severing of the marriage ties binding him to Mary Elizabeth DeSousa, denied on the witness stand that he is the father of one of four children named in the divorce petition. The child, whose parentage is questioned, is a young boy.

Warned by Father-in-Law

The libellant, seeking a divorce on statutory grounds, testified that, after having been warned by his father-in-law that it would be well for him to keep a watchful eye on his wife, he went to his home, in company with a brother-in-law, and a police officer, about 1 o'clock in the morning of January 1, 1920, and found conditions there such that his wife and a male companion were arrested.

When the witness was asked by Judge Cox if he wanted the custody of his four children he replied:

"In one way I want them and another I don't. It is pretty hard to support four children."

"Who should support them, if you do not?" inquired the judge.

"My wife makes good money; she should support some of them," was the answer.

"I don't like to hear you say you will not support your children," continued Judge Cox. "Are you a citizen of the United States?"

"Yes."

"Then you will support your children if you get any relief from me here," the judge asserted emphatically.

Didn't Want Boy

"But I don't want the boy; he is not mine," protested the witness.

"Who do you think will take care of your children, if you do not?" asked the judge.

"I understand that the mother wants one or two of them."

"If you think she is not fit to live with, do you think she is a fit person to have control of your children?" was the next interrogation of the judge.

The judge brushed aside the mooted question of the paternity of the young boy by calling attention to the fact that he had been named in the petition for divorce and his parentage thereby acknowledged.

In granting a divorce decree, Judge Cox cautioned the libellant that if he did not support his children "the police would get him."

Argument Over Life Insurance

Ramona O. Pearson of Malden, a comely blonde attractively gowned in blue with a light green tunic, seeking a divorce from Herbert W. Pearson, said that the first serious trouble she had with her husband was at the home of her mother in Melrose on Thanksgiving day, 1914. She asserted that she had an argument with her husband over a life insurance policy. She said that her husband expressed the opinion that "he did not think any man should be foolish enough to carry life insurance for the benefit of some other man," and that when she refused to "sign off" her interest under the policy he doubled up his fist and struck her.

The witness testified that her husband boasted of his conquests with other women, and that she found compromising letters from his feminine correspondents and that when she refused to give them up her husband struck her several times. She testified that in all her husband had struck her at least 25 times during her married life. She testified that she is employed as a clerical worker in West Cambridge, Boston, and that her pay is slightly in excess of $100 a month. When questioned by Judge Cox regarding her ability to make both ends meet out of her income, without assistance from her husband, who, she asserted is earning $75 a week, the witness gave details of bills she owes a doctor and lawyers, and said that she has indebted on charge accounts in Boston department stores for about $150.

"You are some extravagant," commented the judge.

"Just a bit," admitted the witness, smiling sweetly. In response.

A decree was granted with the stipulation that further relief may be sought later in the way of alimony.

In the case of Jennie M. Green, on the ground of desertion and cruel and abusive treatment, the libellant testified that her husband had pinched her until she was black and blue. The libellant's mother told of seeing bruises on her daughter's arms and that at the time she was in a condition bordering on hysteria. A decree was granted after a default had been recorded.

BOYS' VOCATIONAL SCHOOL FIELD DAY

The annual field day of the students of the Boys' Vocational school will be held Friday, June 10, at the Genoa club grounds in Tyngsboro and an excellent program of sporting events and entertainment has been arranged for the occasion under the direction of Principal Thomas F. Fiske.

The outing and field day will be an all-day affair, the students leaving for the grounds early in the morning. They will bring their own lunches and the faculty will furnish ice cream and tonic.

A feature of the sporting program will be a baseball game for the school championship between the machine shop and the automobile repair department.

Tomorrow afternoon the Vocational school nine will meet the Continuation school outfit on the Neth cmm. Next Tuesday the Vocational school boys will play Westford and a week from tomorrow there will be a game with a nine from Wilmington.

WANT OFFICE IN MERRIMACK SQUARE

An office will be hired by the United States naval authorities in Merrimack square, and unlimited recruiting for Uncle Sam's sea forces is expected to start here July 1. This was learned today when a high official from the district headquarters of the recruiting service, in Boston, visited this city and viewed several possible sites for a sub-station in this city.

Martial Law at Tulsa

light near the negro quarter of Tulsa, the scene of all night race disturbances in which hundreds of armed white men and negroes took part and which resulted in the death and injury of an unknown number of persons and the calling out of Oklahoma national guard units.

The firing came from a spot where throughout the early morning hours 500 white men and a thousand negroes faced each other across railroad tracks. First reports to police headquarters said that the bodies of from six to ten negroes could be seen lying in a space described as "No Man's Land."

The police also had a report that three railway switchmen and a brakeman had been shot to death.

The trainmen were killed, it is reported, because they refused to permit members of the opposing crowds to ride upon a switch engine passing between the lines. The engineer was reported to have escaped.

Riots Renewed

Officials had hoped that with the coming of dawn the trouble, which began over the arrest of a negro late yesterday for an attack upon a white girl, would die out. On the contrary, however, the early morning gunfire was taken as an indication that the riots had been renewed.

About 1 o'clock last night, automobiles armed with armed negroes, appeared on the principal streets, headed for the courthouse. The jail in which the negro was confined is located on the upper story of the courthouse.

Shortly after the jail had been surrounded by 200 negroes, several armed white men appeared, and soon the streets were lined with crowds.

The first known firing came shortly after dark when a negro was stopped by a police officer and his gun was taken away. He attempted to resist, according to the officer, and was shot dead. Three hours later his body was picked up in the street and taken to police headquarters.

The first white man was killed in fighting at the courthouse, before the guardsmen arrived. The second was killed, according to the police, when a party of whites passing in a motor car mistook him for a negro and shot him. He died instantly.

Three units of the national guard arrived at midnight, and formed a cordon about the business section.

The situation was further aggravated by reports from Muskogee that crowds of negroes there were arming themselves and preparing to come to the assistance of those of their race in Tulsa. Muskogee officials were guarding the highways to prevent the departure of negroes.

Whites Surround Negroes

As dawn broke in Tulsa 60 or 70 motor cars filled with armed whites motor formed a circle completely around the negro section. Half a dozen airplanes circled overhead. There was much shouting and shooting. A row of houses along the railroad tracks was fired but lack of wind prevented the flames from spreading. A party of white riflemen was reported to be shooting at all negroes they saw and firing into houses. The negroes were said to be returning the fire spiritlessly.

Late reports placed the number of dead in the neighborhood of 15. Officials were uncertain as to the number injured.

White Woman Shot

Dick Howland, the negro charged with assault, was removed from the county jail during the night to a place of safety unrevealed.

In a fresh outbreak at 7:30 o'clock in the Standpipe Hill district in the extreme northern end of the negro quarter, Mrs. S. A. Gilmore, a white woman, was shot in the left arm and side. She was standing on the front porch of her home when she was shot by a negro, one of a score or more barricaded in a church.

Hundreds of armed white men rushed to the district in automobiles.

Machine Gunners on Way

WOULD RECALL HARVEY COX TO IGNORE APPEAL

Sen. McKellar Declares Pres. Harding's Remarks Rebuked Ambassador

WASHINGTON, June 1.—President Harding's utterances at Foblick, Va., Sunday, and his Memorial day address were interpreted in the senate yesterday by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, as a "rebuke" to Ambassador Harvey for his address at the Piquette society dinner in London recently.

Drawing what he termed a "deadly parallel" of the remarks of the president and Mr. Harvey, Senator McKellar asked that they be printed in the Congressional Record to show the contrast. He also urged that Mr. Harvey be recalled.

He declared that portions of the Harvey speech constituted a libel on the American government and every patriotic citizen. The ambassador's statement that "we were afraid not to fight" was characterized by the senator as being "as false as Satan himself."

The president in "reproving" the ambassador has proved that he is a sincere and honest and patriotic American, the senator declared.

The president's words always are of greatest importance, he added, but he believed they had special force and power in pointing out the falsehood, making clear the desertion and in repudiating and rebuking the libel committed by Mr. Harvey.

"I hope the president will go further," continued the senator. "I hope that he will take steps to right the wrong that Mr. Harvey has perpetrated upon the American people. I hope he will recall him from his post. After the publication of these false statements about his own country, Mr. Harvey ought not be permitted to represent our people at the British court. It is a shame to America to be represented abroad by a man who thus expresses his contempt for his own nation and its soldiers."

HARVEY TO ATTEND COUNCIL MEETING

LONDON, June 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Ambassador Harvey told the American correspondents yesterday that he expected to attend the forthcoming meeting of the supreme council in Boulogne, but he could not indicate whether he would take part in the deliberations or sit merely as an observer.

He took occasion to dispel the idea that had been expressed in some of the London newspapers that because of his close personal relations with President Harding he might depart from strict diplomatic usage and voice his personal opinions with relation to international questions.

He declined to express an opinion as to what the American attitude would be in the matter of assisting in the execution of the League of Nations plan for the economic rehabilitation of Austria, and other issues involving the league.

He said nothing had been officially brought to his attention with reference to an alleged diversion of Irish White Cross funds for the purchase of American ammunition found in Ireland.

Boston Police Strikers Asked Reinstatement—Repented in Sack Cloth and Ashes

BOSTON, June 1.—Gov. Cox last night asserted that he did not believe he would "pay any attention" to the letter addressed to him yesterday asking reinstatement of the Boston policemen who left the force on strike in September, 1919. The letter was signed by Michael Lynch, as president of the Boston Social club, which was the fraternal organization of the former police force.

"In view of the fact that the letter was apparently sent to the newspapers first," the governor said, "and in view of the condition that it is in, I do not believe that I will pay attention to it."

The communication, asserted that the former policemen had "repented in sack cloth and ashes," adding that they had paid and suffered "for their indiscretion as no other body of men have ever been called upon to suffer for like action in the history of the country."

RAIN AIDS FOREST FIRE FIGHTERS

HOULTON, Me., June 1.—Heavy rain last night came to the aid of hundreds of forest fire fighters in Aroostook county. The progress of the flames was checked and at a late hour it was believed that the three separate fires which had burned over 15 square miles, destroying much valuable timber, were under control. They were being fought by crews of men numbering several hundred but the ground was so dry that the fires ran under the trenches dug to prevent their spreading.

In Township 15, Range 4, one mile south of Winthrop lake in northern Aroostook, there is a fire in the timberlands of James C. Madigan of Houlton and the American Realty Co. Another fire to the south is on the property of the Great Northern Paper Co. In Township 1, Range 3, while the third is in Township 8, Range 4, on lands of the Great Northern Paper Co. and the Penobscot Development Co.

The last two fires were menacing the camps of James T. Darling of Houlton, Clarence Sills of Weeksboro, and Frank Daggett of Bangor.

FRANCE MOURNS CHIEF JUSTICE

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The sympathy of France for the widow of Chief Justice White was expressed to her yesterday by Ambassador Jusserand, in accordance with instructions received by him from his government, in which he declared that France mourns Chief Justice White as "a friend whose sympathy during all the years of the war was appreciated."

The letter to Mrs. White from M. Jusserand reads as follows: "Dear Mrs. White: Not in my name today, but in that of my government, I come to express to you the deep regret with which they learned of the great loss suffered by you and by this country, by all those intent able to appreciate the splendid distinction of qualities and virtues which made of the chief justice such an admirable man."

"A cable received by me this morning instructs me to say to you that France mourns with America, having lost in Edward Douglas White a friend whose sympathy during all the years of the war was deeply appreciated by all of us and given what he was, confirmed us in our faith as to the justice of our cause."

PASTOR GREETED AT A RECEPTION

Rev. J. Field Speer and family were greeted by nearly 175 members of the congregation of the Westminster Presbyterian church at a reception in the church last night. Mr. Speer has recently been installed pastor of the church. The reception was in charge of committees representing the Minute Men and Ladies Aid society of the church.

In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Speer were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Blackie and Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Achison of Lawrence.

After the reception short addresses were made by several speakers introduced by John D. McKinley. Those who spoke were Rev. J. M. Craig, pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Joseph E. Kennedy, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Dr. T. E. Achison, head of the presbytery which includes Lowell churches, and Rev. J. F. Speer.

Under arrangements perfected by the shipping board, American mariners are to receive storm warnings by wireless from all parts of the world. Many vessels on the sea are without radio equipment and in these cases the warnings are to be passed on from ships receiving them by other means when such vessels are encountered.

Hair-Raising Tumbles Feature Hill Climbing Contests at Chalifoux Hill in Dunstable

STARTING BIG MOTORCYCLE HILL CLIMB

Some hair-raising tumbles featured the motorcycle hill climbing contests held at Chalifoux hill, off the Dunstable road, by the Merrimack Valley Motorcycle club on Memorial day before hundreds of spectators who came from far and wide in automobiles. Valuable prizes were awarded to the successful contestants. A large delegation of movie news cameramen were present in search of thrills for the films, and found plenty of material with riders and their machines taking spectacular falls throughout the events. Soft spots on the hill were responsible for most of the mishaps. Chalifoux hill is said to be the worst grade ever tackled hereabouts, and is supposed to have even the hill at Worcester beaten. At the start-off, the grade is practically a 50 per cent one.

Competitors from cities and towns within a 100-mile radius of Lowell were eligible for the contests. The first event, a 37-inch small and medium-weight motorcycle competition, was won by John Warner of Waterbury, Conn., on a Harley-Davidson. The second, on an Indian, while Earl Gove also on an Indian, was third. In the 51-inch amateur open event, Sanders, of Worcester, cooped on a Harley-Davidson. John Gifford, of Haverhill, Mass., came second on an Indian, while Gifford of New Bedford, on a Harley-Davidson, was third. The 51-inch expert event resulted in a victory for Putnam of Hyde Park, on a Harley-Davidson. Tucker, on an Indian, was second, and Gifford, on a Harley-Davidson, third. Sanders, on a Harley-Davidson, was first in the 61-inch side car event, making 150 feet. Putnam, also on a Harley-Davidson, was second with 147 feet, and Gove, on an Indian, came third with 140 feet.

The first, second and third prizes respectively, in each event, were as follows: In the 37-inch public motorcycle open event, a 26x3 casing, a Kay Bee spotlight, and an inner tube. In the 51-inch public side car event, a trophy cup, donated by the Healey-McGee, makers of Indian motorcycles, a Corbin speedometer, and a flashlight. In the third event, a cup, given by the Merrimack Valley Motorcycle club, a casing, and a Kay Bee spotlight. In the last event, a trophy cup, a starter carburetor, and a casing and tube.

On all events except the side car number time was the determining factor. An electrical timing device was used. Distance, however, counted in the side car event, as none of the machines could make the 240-foot distance with sidecars. The first course was 300 feet, but this was cut because of short stopping distance.

Frank Fanniff is president of the Merrimack club, and the committee in charge of the contests was headed by George H. Bachelder. Other committee members were Harold Dyer, Richard Phillips, George Cobb, J. Greenough, Daniel Aguir, George Jones, J. McQuesten, and David Brabant. The referee was Boyd Putnam, of Lowell. Arthur Cashin, also of Lowell, was clerk of the course. The starter was Melvin Masters, Lowell milk inspector. The timers were: Charles Brown, Leo Gerow and George Seede, of the Middlesex Trust company. George Cobb was scorer. The electrical timing device used in three of the four events was operated by C. W. Davis, of Worcester, who is also chairman of the committee on the Old Orchard tour scheduled for later in the season. This tour will start from Boston, and continue to Old Orchard, Me., where two days of sports will be held.

The cup donated by the Merrimack Valley Motorcycle club was purchased from Edward Freeman, who made a substantial reduction to the organization, and who also engraved the inscription. Officer Daniel Lynch was deputized by the local police authorities to the scene.

has a weekly task of burning out the area below the closets in an effort to keep the building in something approaching a sanitary condition.

Why the school has never had proper sanitary sewer connections is a mystery to both municipal officials and the teachers of the school. A sewer pipe was brought into the basement when the school was first erected to drain off the sink, but there the work ceased. Two years ago, the framework of the closets had to be renewed and it was thought at that time that modern plumbing would be installed and the sewer connected, but this was not done. As the framework is again beginning to rot away and it will be but a matter of time when it will once more have to be replaced.

The health authorities are aware of the conditions existing at the school and have voiced their condemnation of the present system. Commissioner George E. Marchand intends to replace the dry closets in several of the schools this summer and it is probable that the Cross Street school will be among them and that proper sewer connections will be made. Otherwise the teachers and children there

CLOSING EXERCISES

OF M. T. I. CLASS

The closing exercises of the class in civil service, English and mathematics of the Mathew Temperance Institute, which has been conducted for the past ten weeks under the auspices of the literary committee of the institute, were held last evening in the Mathew rooms in Central street, prior to the regular weekly meeting of the organization.

Certificates from the state department of education, division of university extension, were presented to the members of the class of Mr. Dooley of the department of education, who gave an interesting talk on preparation for civil service examinations and positions in private business as well. After the certificates had been awarded, President Arthur M. Flaherty, on behalf of the members of the class, presented instructor Charles D. Foley a box of cigars. Mr. Foley expressed his gratitude in a fitting manner and assured the members of the class of his readiness to assist them at all times.

Those who received certificates were: John J. Callahan, John Conlon, Henry J. Dowd, Joseph Geary, Francis Hurley, Arthur M. Flaherty, Edward Mealey, Charles P. Nestor, John Nestor, John Marshall, George Marshall, Joseph Perceval, Walter M. Fulm, Bernard H. O'Rourke, John P. Sheehan, Daniel Sheehan, Joseph M. Joney, John J. Hickey, Francis B. Plunkett, William Sanderson, John Tighe, Thomas J. Tighe and John Keegan.

The exercises a regular meeting of the institute was held with President Flaherty in the chair. Several propositions for membership were received and acted upon and two members were admitted.

The committee in charge of the recent Irish concert reported that plans had been completed for the entertainment of the musical troupe next Tuesday evening, June 7, and that indications pointed to an enjoyable evening for those who attend.

The assessors have completed their work on real estate for the present year and are now engaged in assessing the property of the corporations.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Chagnon, of Wilmamantic, Conn., were yesterday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Bouchard of Alken avenue.

The inspector of buildings has issued a permit to Philip S. Marden to erect a residence at 84 Calmont street, the estimated cost being $20,000.

Fire, automobile and burglary insurance written by the Lowell Mutual Fire Insurance Agency, Joseph Peabody, agent, 53 Central st. Phone 91.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roux, of White street, have returned from Hartford, Conn., where they spent the holidays.

Among those who will attend the annual convention of the United States and Canada Police Chiefs association, to be held at St. Louis, Mo., is Superintendent Welch, of the local police department, and a member of the body. He will leave Lowell on Sunday next.

The member of the senior class of the Lowell high school posed for their class photo in the school yard this morning. A panoramic photograph of the class was taken by a Boston firm. The students were seated in circular formation while the picture was being taken.

The annual graduation exercises of the girls' department of the Lowell Vocational school will be held Tuesday morning, June 21, at 10 o'clock in the Morrill school, Common street. Twenty-six young women will receive their diplomas. There will be no graduation exercises in the boys' department, but the young men who have finished the required courses will be given certificates.

A complimentary dinner is to be tendered William J. White of this city by members of the local bar at the Villa Lorraine in Pepperell tomorrow evening in honor of his appointment as assistant United States attorney. Practically every Lowell member of the bar will be present and Mayor Perry D. Thompson will be one of the invited guests.

Gas House Cases Called

again about 7.30. James F. Mahan said he saw McCaffery in the city barn about 8 o'clock. Cross-examined, he admitted that the time he saw the defendant might have been as early as 7.45. Michael Kelly told of seeing McCaffery twice that morning.

Two Defendants

William Connors, charged with threatening, and Walter Boland, charged with assault and battery, were next tried. John J. Reardon, who drives a coke team for the gas company, told of being called a "cat" and a "scab" and then of being hit in the neck by a stone, when three volleys of stones were fired by a group near the corner of Rock and Willie sts.

Boland was among those who picked up stones, said witness. Gorry Chapell, who was driving another team, told of seeing Boland hurl a stone which "couldn't have missed" Reardon. He said that O'Connor then came by in a Dodge car and told Reardon he'd kill him, and that he'd meet him any time.

Boland, in defence, denied throwing a stone, and Chas. Lannin, together with Daniel Rourke, corroborated his denial. O'Connor, who is a striker, denied threatening Reardon, and charged the latter with using vile language towards himself. James Gannon, also a striker, who was riding with O'Connor, testified that no menaces were made by O'Connor.

Prior to the closing arguments it was agreed that, since Reardon said on the stand that he does not now fear violence from O'Connor, no bonds to keep the peace should be imposed on the latter.

"I'm not satisfied that McCaffery committed this assault," was Judge Enright's comment at the close of the arguments.

Bad Corner, Says Judge

The corner of Rock and Willie sts. is the worst corner in Lowell," declared His Honor, with reference to the Boland case. "I have more complaints from there than anywhere else." The court added that in view of Boland's age, 17 years, he thought a suspended reformatory sentence might be most advisable.

O'Connor and McCaffery were both found not guilty and discharged, while Boland was sentenced to the reformatory under a suspended sentence. The last named defendant is not a striker from the gas plant.

Larceny of Cloth

James Kondusheer paid a fine of $10 for larceny of six yards of cloth, valued at 10 cents a yard, from the Waterhead mills. The defendant, speaking through an interpreter, admitted taking the goods but explained he wished to use them for a bath. A watchman employed by the concern told of much material being missing. He said in testimony that he was duped to lie in wait for the culprit, and caught Kondusheer. The defendant, who has worked for the company during a period of four years

Larceny of Automobile

Wilfred Montblau and Frank Dan-casse appeared on charges of stealing an automobile, valued at $255, the property of Adolphe Chaput. The former, pleading guilty, had his case continued to tomorrow for sentence, while the latter, who pleaded not guilty, had his case continued to tomorrow for trial. Bail in each case was set at $1000.

Broke Pane of Glass

A Middlesex street storekeeper named Smith, whose establishment is near the depot, declared in court this morning that a pane of plate glass in his window, broken accidentally by John A. Speira, a soldier, charged with drunkenness, was worth $200, although previously it had been cracked in numerous places. Officer James P. Garrity, who made the arrest, said the Speira, intoxicated but not creating a disturbance, unintentionally broke Smith's window while putting on his coat. Judge Enright asked Smith whether he hadn't been in court before relative to someone ruining a pane of plate glass of his. Witness admitted that he had. Speira's case was placed on file, and Smith was advised by the court to confer with the defendant relative to a civil settlement.

John Quinn, Arrested for the fourth time within this year on drunkenness charges, pleaded guilty and had his case continued to tomorrow for sentence. Investigation will be made concerning his circumstances at Groton, where he stayed, that he resided. Two drunkenness charges against William E. Quigley were filed.

Four drunks were released by the probation officer prior to the opening of court.

Manslaughter Case Continued

The case of Victor N. Schull, charged with manslaughter, reckless driving and operating an automobile without a license, was continued to tomorrow. The defendant was recently exonerated of criminal negligence in causing the death of Mrs. Helen A. Fuller, struck, together with two other women, by a truck which Schull was driving on the night of March 2. An inquest report to this effect was submitted by Judge John J. Pickman, senior justice of the police court. Later Schull's license was suspended at the state house.

LINCOLN CLUB WILL MEET TOMORROW

The Lincoln club, a recently formed republican organization in this city, will hold its first formal meeting in Eagles' hall, Central street, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers and hearing the principles of the club discussed by Frank H. Foss, chairman of the republican state committee, and Hon. James Stiles, former district attorney of Worcester county. David Dickson, chairman of the republican city committee, is in charge of the arrangements. A dinner to the speakers of the occasion will precede the meeting.

CROSS STREET SCHOOL UNSANITARY

One of the most unsanitary public buildings in Lowell despite the efforts of its janitorial staff is the Cross street school in Cross street, near Mt. Vernon street. This building is the only school in the entire city that has no sewer connections for sanitary purposes despite the fact that the laying of a few yards of pipe would connect it with the Cross street sewer.

This is one of the few schools of the city with the so-called dry closet system of sanitation but added to this distinct disadvantage from a health standpoint is the fact that there are no available facilities for carrying off its refuse. At the present time a fire must be kept burning every day in the year that there is a session of school or otherwise the odors arising from the basement would make the building uninhabitable. In addition the school janitor, William H. Kennedy, has a weekly task of burning out the area below the closets in an effort to keep the building in something approaching a sanitary condition.

Why the school has never had proper sanitary sewer connections is a mystery to both municipal officials and the teachers of the school. A sewer pipe was brought into the basement when the school was first erected to drain off the sink, but there the work ceased. Two years ago, the framework of the closets had to be renewed and it was thought at that time that modern plumbing would be installed and the sewer connected, but this was not done. As the framework is again beginning to rot away and it will be but a matter of time when it will once more have to be replaced.

The health authorities are aware of the conditions existing at the school and have voiced their condemnation of the present system. Commissioner George E. Marchand intends to replace the dry closets in several of the schools this summer and it is probable that the Cross Street school will be among them and that proper sewer connections will be made. Otherwise the teachers and children there will be exposed to exceedingly unhealthy surroundings.

King and Premier of Bulgaria to Visit U. S.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, June 1.—King Boris and Premier Stambouliwsky will visit the United States next fall. "I am going with King Boris," declared the premier, "to visit the great American people who have done so much for Bulgarians."

Man Carrying Bomb Arrested

MEXICO CITY, June 1.—Three persons disguised as beggars, one of whom was said to be carrying a dynamite bomb, were arrested last night in the village of Guadalupe, near here, charged with attempting to break up religious services being held in the cathedral under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. They were released upon orders from Celestino Gasca, governor of the federal district who declared there was no evidence against them. As they left the prison, however, they were stoned by crowds. The men are all alleged to be Bolshevik leaders.

$25,000,000 Bridge at San Francisco Bay

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—A bridge across San Francisco bay will be constructed at a cost of $25,000,000, according to an announcement today by A. J. Rich, a local financier, who declared the money for the project had been subscribed. Engineers' plans have been completed and the terminals have been selected. The structure will extend direct from San Francisco to the Alameda county shore line. The bridge will be eight and one-eighth miles long and 200 feet wide and will provide for traffic of all kinds.

Germany Protests French Franc In Saar

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Germany has addressed a note of protest to the League of Nations against the establishment of the French franc instead of the German mark, as the official currency in the Saar district which is under the administration of the league, according to advices received here today in official circles. The protest is understood to have been based on the charge that the order constituted a fundamental and illegal alteration of the treaty of Versailles.

Fighting Follows Raid Near Dublin

DUBLIN, June 1.—Armed men made an attack upon the residence of the Honorable Edward Donoghue O'Brien, at Roslevan, Ennis, yesterday and in the fighting that ensued, one person was wounded. A tennis game was in progress when 40 men suddenly appeared, shouting: "Hands up." They commenced firing, some bullets entering the luncheon tent on the grounds, where W. H. Ball was sitting. He was wounded. A motor car was stolen and another was burned during the raid. Several women fainted.

Columbia Crew Off For Poughkeepsie

NEW YORK, June 1.—The Columbia university rowing squad, headed by Coach Jim Rice, left this morning for Poughkeepsie to complete training for the intercollegiate regatta June 22. First and second varsity and freshman oarsmen were included in the squad. The Columbia oarsmen are the first of the intercollegiate regatta entrants to settle in the Poughkeepsie training quarters.

British Forces May Quit Mesopotamia

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Situation of the British forces in Mesopotamia was reported today in official circles to be increasingly unstable. It was represented that the British are faced with the necessity of either withdrawing from the country or of adding reserves to the forces already there. One plan under consideration is a withdrawal to Basra and the organization of an Arab state there under Emir Feisal.

CUT DEFICIENCY BILL

$150,000 for Boston Quarantine Station Wiped Out—

Other Items Eliminated

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Exasperated by the huge deficiency appropriation

asked by the government departments, leaders in the senate appropriations committee have determined to put an end to such expenditures.

Heads of departments or bureaus who hereafter exceed their authority by ordering expenditures exceeding appropriations approved by congress may find themselves summarily dismissed from the service, fined or put in prison.

The committee reported the second deficiency appropriation bill to the senate yesterday, after eliminating a number of items, including $150,000 contained in the house bill for the quarantine station in Boston. The committee also separated the actual deficiency items from the so-called "emergency items," of which there are a large number in the bill.

A forgotten statute, passed more than 15 years ago, which makes it a penal offense for executive officers to obligate the government for deficiencies not authorized when congress makes the appropriations for the fiscal year, or to involve the government in any contract or other obligation for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriation, unless such contract or obligation is authorized by law.

"Any person violating any provision of this law shall be summarily removed from office, and may also be punished by a fine of not less than $100, or by imprisonment for not less than one month."

Members of the senate say that this law has been ignored for many years, and they blame the executive departments for this. The statute does permit, however, expenditures for "unforeseen emergencies" under certain restrictions. This is the loophole, they say, that has paved the way for excessive expenditures.

Every woman's health is peculiarly dependent upon the condition of her blood. How many women suffer with headache, pain in the back, poor appetite, weak digestion, a constant feeling of weariness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, pallor and nervousness? If you have any of these symptoms, do not despair of getting better, but begin now, today, to build up your blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. See how the nervous energy of the body is restored as the blood becomes pure and red and the entire system is strengthened to meet every demand upon it.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful for all women, but they are particularly valuable to girls of school age who show symptoms of going into a decline, who become pale, nervous and languid. These pills aid in securing perfect development and health by strengthening the system and purifying and building up the blood. Thin blood during the growing years of a girl's life usually means a flat-chested and hollow-chested womanhood, who can be neither healthy nor beautiful without red blood which gives brightness to the eyes and color to cheeks and lips.

W. A. Stearns

The first big electric sign that started Broadway's white way in New York was put up in 1891.

GREEN BAY, Wis., June 1.—All employees at the Northern Paper mills have been withdrawn and the machines have been shut down pending the arrival of state troops asked by the sheriff.

Judson G. Rosebush, general manager, escorted a committee of strikers through the mills to convince them that work would not be continued by strike-breakers.

Under police protection, scores of employees were taken in boats down the river to a landing close to the business district and under heavy guard driven to the courthouse, where they were paid off and left for their homes or for other cities.

Police have under arrest a man believed responsible for the wounding of two pickets.

A company official declared that the mill would reopen just as soon as adequate protection was given by the state or local authorities.

CARD OF THANKS

The Sisters of Notre Dame wish to express their thanks to their kind friends who gave their machines yesterday to convey sisters and children to and from Tyngsboro at the children's picnic.

Polish Insurgents Routed By Germans

ANNBERG, Silesia, June 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Polish insurgents who attacked German defense organizations in this village, about 17 miles southeast of Oppeln and east of the Oder river, have been defeated and have retreated.

THE SILESIAN TROUBLE

There is much misconception in reference to the trouble in upper Silesia. The fact that Germany won in the plebiscite and that a Polish faction afterwards arose in revolt under their leader, Pilsudski, does not prove that Poland is wrong and Germany or her friend, Lloyd George is right.

The British premier is accused of leaning strongly to the Russian and even to the German side and therefore of being against Poland and France, the main or in fact the only supporter of Poland.

What are the facts? In accordance with the terms of the peace treaty, a plebiscite election was held on March 20 and it was reported that Germany won, having 753,000 votes to 418,000 for Poland, but it is charged by Poland that the Germans imported 150,000 men from other provinces to help them carry the election.

Lloyd George made a bitter attack on Poland, assailing her record in the war and charging that had she done her full duty there would have been fewer Frenchmen and Britons killed. This is cruel in face of the fact that the Poles had to fight in the armies of the nations to which they belonged, as owing to the decree of a former European treaty, part of Poland was attached to Russia, part to Germany and part to Austria. But when Poland was able to aid the allies, she did so bravely.

France took a firm stand in support of Poland, which under the letter of the treaty was justified for the reason that the treaty provided the vote should be decided by the majority of each commune. Poland had a majority in but 151 communes and Germany in but 151. The districts in which Poland had a majority included all the richer, coal fields, and apparently Lloyd George was opposed to allowing Poland to get this district for it has been said that "the power that rules Silesia will rule Europe," and England wants no power to rise as a menace on the continent. On the contrary, France wants a strong buffer state between her and Germany and hence the difference that nearly broke out in another war-like outbreak. It is understood that the supreme council of the allies will make a new ruling in the case and probably divide upper Silesia between Poland and Germany.

It is urged that unless Germany gets a liberal concession in the mining districts she will not be able to pay the reparations demands made upon her. Premier Lloyd George has been very obsequious to Russia as he realizes that the Bolsheviks can make trouble whenever they please, either by moving towards India or by crowding Poland. For this reason Poland is likely to be denied much of what she has claimed in upper Silesia. Korfanti, the leader of the insurgents, has subdued and Poland awaits the decision of "the big three." Although the United States will have troops on the Rhine, we shall take no part in the Silesian trouble.

HARDING AND HARVEY

Memorial day brought a storm of protest against the statement of Col. Harvey in London to the effect that we entered the war for the mere selfish motive, "to save our own skin." On a thousand platforms he was contradicted by Memorial day orators from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

President Harding on Sunday, speaking in the church in which Washington worshipped, said:

"We unsheathed the sword in behalf of humanity and were brought into a supreme and sublime effort to save the civilization of the world."

That flatly contradicts Harvey's view of our motives for entering the war and on Memorial day he rather emphasized this view when he said:

"Our country has never failed to measure up to the demands presented to it in behalf of humanity, and it never will. When it ceases to meet these demands it will no longer be our country."

But following his usual custom, or at least his record as a campaign speaker, the president hedged on, his first statement and came out with the following:

"Their country's lives were at stake; their rights as free men were menaced; and for these they went forth to battle. There was no thought of crusading for the freedom of a world, of emancipating distant peoples, of rendering a noble aid to the enemy who had attacked them. They had no time and small disposition to indulge altruisms."

It is almost hopeless to get an idealistic view from the president that he will not disavow in the next breath. His conservatism is shown in every speech, however, and his expressions in this connection we may accept as voicing his real sentiment. Of such is the following:

"In such a view we must see that our opportunity to be useful to mankind at large depends first on being loyal to ourselves. No ideal of generosity to all men can justify neglect, first to make ourselves strong, firm, secure, in the half of our own people. We cannot hope to discharge the wider responsibilities if we have not first proved our capacity to meet the narrower ones."

Thus, so far as the president's views of why we entered the war have been made public, Col. Harvey is contradicted at one point and confirmed at another. We did and we didn't.

The people of this nation, however, will never approve any attempt either to impugn our motives in entering the war or to belittle the character of our achievement.

If the president agrees with Harvey as to the reasons why we went to war, then he is also wrong and another representative of the sentiments of the people of this nation on the real motives of one of the most momentous acts in our history.

POLICE NEWS BY WIRELESS

We note the fact that the police department of some cities in which amateur wireless operators are active, receive police news from Boston and elsewhere from messages sent out by wireless announcing the theft of automobiles, the disappearance of men or women and other items of interest. We have several accomplished radio operators in Lowell, who would doubtless perform this service at a moderate cost if not free of charge. It is not to be expected, however, that any gratuitous service will be continued very long, but the time is at hand when every well equipped police department will have its wireless outfit so as to be able to receive and send out messages with equal facility. We expect that a great step forward will be taken in this respect when the new state constabulary provided for in a recent act of the legislature gets into active operation. This state force will not be very large but it should have a sufficient number of wireless stations at convenient points to keep it constantly informed upon the police news of the state. This force should be able to put a stop to looting along the highways in summer and to reduce the theft of automobiles to a minimum although it is still boldly carried on in Boston and other cities.

FAKE RADIO DISPATCHES

That was a contemptible piece of business by which radio messages were sent out to the effect that the steamer Suesuehanna from Bremen was in trouble from a mutinous crew and wanted policemen to meet her down the harbor at New York, when there was no foundation for any such statement. Several messages to that effect were received and the authorities are now at a loss to know who the authors of this hoax. It is regarded as the work of parties acting in the interests of the striking seamen in New York. It is alleged to be part of a scheme concocted to injure the reputation of the U. S. mail line to Europe, to which the steamer in question belongs. If such tactics continue, the result will be that our merchant marine will finally be abandoned or sold to foreigners. Already plans are being made to dispose of part of our surplus ships to foreign nations. That, we presume, is but the first acknowledgment that we have more than we can handle.

This is probably the first time that a wireless message has been used to convey a false message that would deceive the public.

DANGER EVER PRESENT

That airplane accident in which the seven occupants of a big army ambulance, Curtiss-Eagle machine, were instantly killed at Indian Head, Md., will probably result in some regulations that will lessen the risks of such accidents. However well equipped or piloted an airplane may be, there is always danger of a fatal crash. First, mechanical defects and engine troubles are liable to develop when least expected and these, added to the atmospheric changes, the air currents and electric storms, constitute elements of danger that make it impossible for any airplane to offer any guarantee of safety even on the shortest voyage. There is great need of careful regulation of traffic in the air as we are liable soon to have the risks of collision added to the other dangers that threaten the aviators.

ADMIRAL SIMS

Admiral Sims is now being honored in London with almost as much honor as was lavished on President Wilson on the occasion of his visit to the British capital. Sims is the official who said that in case of necessity our last ship and our last man would be sacrificed in behalf of Britain. On account of the manner in which he has extolled the work of the British navy and disparaged that of the United States in the late war, he is made the recipient of a degree from Cambridge university and is honored even by the royal family. The question arises whether an American admiral who proves himself such an out and out enemy to a rival power is fit to be entrusted with an inside knowledge of our naval policies and our naval secrets, for every navy has its secrets, which are jealously guarded against the prying inquisitors of rival nations.

"Prince of Wales Entertains Admirals," says a headline. It must be slightly entertaining just to look upon a prince, destined in the ordinary course of events to become a king with only slightly more governing power than the commonest commoner.

Not even President Harding's statement that "it is recognized that cotton industries face a critical situation" can throw a wet blanket on the aspiring hopes based on the widening opportunities for employment in our local mills.

Judging by the punishments being reluctantly meted out by Germany to her brutal war criminals we may expect that should the Kaiser be brought to trial he might be sentenced to have his wrists slapped.

It is announced that the shipping board is preparing to sell its "surplus" of government-owned ships abroad. Would it be better to put the price low enough so that American owners would purchase them?

"All right! Take 'em off again!" Thus advises the Boston Globe. Joyfully, we can proclaim that we did not have to—we didn't put 'em on again.

Nichols' Observations

Little Ethel, who was shopping with her aunt, blushed while the gruff but intelligent clerk remonstrated: "Madam, I am sure you will not need so much material. You will find five yards quite ample." As soon as they had left the shop Ethel exclaimed indignantly: "Auntie, I didn't like that man, not one bit! Why, he talked to you just like he was your husband."

Very Busy Man

Troublesome Tooth

William E. Barlow, in an article captioned "The Parable of the Troublesome Tooth," says: I had a tooth that gave me much trouble. For the dentist filled it and filled it yet again and when the nerve within it died, then did he treat the root, and filled it once more. And there were certain years wherein it gave me good service, and I depended upon it when I wanted to come down hard upon the steak. But there came a day when the dentist said: "There is just one thing I can do for you, I am afraid, and that is, I can pull it out. It does no harm; but the day is not far distant when you will lose it. Now it soon came to pass that the tooth gave me trouble; but I went not again unto the dentist, for I said, there is but one thing that he can do for it, and that can never be undone; now, therefore, if I can make it last a little longer, whatever service it may give me, I will take it. But the feel of it was not like unto velvet; for it gave me pain in mine eye, and pain in mine ear. And there was a Sabbath day when it hurt me all the time I stood in the house of God. And on the next morning I woke early, and I was on the step of the office of the dentist, when he came from breakfast. And what he did to it was a plenty. But when I came away, I spoke unto Keturah, saying, Thine husband is a man less wise than men think him; for had I shown half the good sense with which men credit me, then had I done this two months ago. And I thought of the way men hold onto bad habits, that give them discomfort and help them not at all to deal righteously with God and man; yet how they linger shivering on the brink, and dread the feeling of the cold iron. And unto all such men, I say, fool not with the matter, nor delay; see that you have the bad habit removed, and cast it to the four winds. And though there is some sense of ache and vacuity, yet shall this also be for thy comfort and good health."

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Noah was the first home-brewer, and see what he got. First, the stuff he turned out knocked him cold. Then, as a result of his son's ridicule of his condition, he had an argument with the youth; and was forced to curse him roundly. Moonshiners should profit by the tale of the first too curious. Looking on the wine when it was red caused enough woe, truly; but looking on it when it is cloudy, or a sickly yellow, or while with the deceptive whiteness of water, takes the palm for mischief. After all, Noah had some excuse for being sick of water; he saw an ugly, green animal of it. But the modern moon-maker hasn't really given water a fair show as yet.

Whatever busy professors may resort to in the way of quaint information relative to our national hero, certainly they do not charge them with being in the matter of washing their faces. George Washington may have owed his tenacious jaw to a pompadour set of false teeth; but it may be stated as assured that the land which was practically the Cradle of Bathing, as well as of Liberty undoubtedly can boast great men of scrupulously personal cleanliness. It cannot be said of the White House set of long ago, as it was said of the court of Elizabeth, that "they scattered pearls and lice with equal facility." Why, then, must the visages of our noble great ones remain besmeared with grime when they appear on the paper currency of the nation? Especially in view of the fact that machines for "washing money" are prepared to cleanse all the green-backs sent in by banking institutions?

Some day there is going to be a campaign on the grounds both of aesthetic and sanitary reasons, against the bank which passes out to its customers money which constitutes nothing less than an athletic field, a parade ground, a gymnasium, and a distinct thrill to pleasure every time a bank clerk hands me a wad of blight and wholesome currency, whereas the presentation of bedraggled and unhealthy looking bills ever fills me with pain; although I have not been known, so far, to refuse the latter.

I believe others share my emotions in the matter, and I recommend to the progressive bankers of Lowell a drive for clean money at all times, or as much as is feasible. Some day The Sun may conduct an investigation into the question of what banks in this city are most culpable in the matter of keeping a many lot of bills on hand for distribution to its customers. When that time comes, I am ready to give small wages, of one clean ten-cent piece against one dirty one that business will boom for that financial institution where "green-backs" of respectable appearance occupy the tills. We have spent, during the past few years, millions upon millions in advancing the science of bacteriology in the medical profession, laboring with one end in view, to get rid of germs, believed to be the smallest example of disease bacteria in existence, and one which has so far eluded the delicate instruments and the inexhaustible patience and ingenuity of the proficients. With all this marching in a progressive direction, with all those notable and matchless advances in pathological studies, must we carry about in our wallets specimens of Uncle Sam's money which groan beneath the weight of undecayed bacteria, and which, when we handle them, we are conscious of our clothing, everything possible, in brief, except our money. And we even wash that when we are wise. Why not be wise all the time? Of course I, nor you, nor anyone outside of the cuckoo-house, is going to refuse even the most unpalatable of money, but here's the hope of the banker which lets us have it clean.

The old waves rolled into Hampton beach Sunday with all the force and cooling breezes that the ocean puts forth on a March day. Rarely has a day started out with better indications of being a "roaster" than did Sunday, but as the forenoon went on the sun gradually sank into oblivion, the banks of clouds and drizzle became cooler. Then came a mist of fog, and finally there was a mist in the air. Wood old Hampton, on a warm day alive with people and color and life presented a rather dejected appearance. The few people that were on the boulevard were well supplied with coats and wraps and down on the bathing beach there was one lone hardy bather in the water. But if I had the opportunity to be there Monday, the next day, I wager that things would have been just the opposite and that the famous old beach would once more have come into its own as a place of life and laughter and gay, happy throngs. But there's a long summer ahead and vacation season is yet to come.

The street department has started to patch the streets which have been in bad condition for a year or more. Concord street between Rogers and Pond streets has been visited by a repair gang, who filled most of the holes, probably over three score in number, with broken stone of medium size. The stone is simply shoveled into the broken parts of the street and left in place. There is no hinder to hold it in place and therein lies the defect in this method of doing the work. Possibly, it is the intention of the department to supply the binder later and have these patches hammered down or rolled over, but unless that is done there is little chance that the broken stone will become solidified as part of the street surface. The stone is more likely to be scattered over the surface so that the holes which had been filled will again be hollowed out and become a menace to passing vehicles as before.

NEW CHARTER EXPLAINED

Lowell Charter Commission

Discusses Office of the

Purchasing Agent

In today's article in the series prepared by the Lowell Charter Commission to explain the various sections of the proposed new charter, the office of the purchasing agent is discussed at length, and the commission points out the changes and anticipated improvements which will result in this department if the new charter is adopted. The article follows:

Section 30—Defines the duties of the purchasing agent. He shall make no purchases of material and supplies, except in cases of extreme emergency, exceeding in cost the sum of $50 without first calling for bids thereon by public advertisement and allowing a period of not less than forty-eight hours to elapse between the time of calling for bids and the closing thereof. No splitting of a requisition to avoid calling for competitive bids is permitted. The mayor shall be the sole authority to determine a case of extreme emergency. The mayor shall approve all contracts for the purchase of material and supplies. The heads of departments shall not be obliged to accept delivery of purchases of material and supplies made by the purchasing agent, if in their judgment the same is not up to the standard of weight, quantity or quality as specified in the original requisition, or excessive in price. They may appeal to the mayor whose decision as to acceptance or rejection shall be final. No requisition shall specify a particular trade mark or brand of material or supplies, the effect of which would be to stifle competition.

More Restrictions on Supply Dept.

Differences of opinion exist as to the merits of the purchasing agent's office. The commission after much consideration inclined to the belief that the department is desirable. Not, however, without additional restrictions being placed upon its activities. This department purchases material and supplies in excess of $500,000 annually. The purchasing agent exercises practically unrestricted authority in the distribution of requisitions for material and supplies. It calls for bids or not as his judgment or personal inclinations dictate. His purchases where, and from whom he pleases, and is in a position to favor some to the exclusion of others in the same line of business. He may purchase hardware from a grocery store. There is hardly any check upon his official conduct, and he is not obliged to accept the material and supplies furnished without protest as to quality or price. It is tremendous power, and may be exercised to the disadvantage of the city and discrimination against business men in general. Opportunity for favoritism is too pronounced to have continued without the adoption of restrictive measures. These restrictions have been provided by compelling the purchasing agent to call for bids for purchase of material and supplies in excess of fifty dollars and public advertisement thereof. Heads of departments are permitted to appeal to the mayor against acceptance of purchases for their departments, if in their judgment said purchases are not satisfactory. Furnishing material and supplies in competition is open to all business men in the city and favoritism is reduced to a minimum. The mayor exercises a close and exacting supervision and is compelled to be in closer touch with the workings of this department than any other. This is as it should be. The spending of over half a million dollars is no small matter and requires careful checking up if injustice, favoritism and needless extravagance is to be avoided. It is a department that can be made to function for the benefit of the city from an economical standpoint, but measures are needed. The charter commission has endeavored to do this very thing, and in doing so, decided to retain the office.

Section 32—Simply provides that all heads of the departments, boards and commissions shall be sworn to the

DEPARTMENTS RUN COMMISSIONERS

Section 33—Provides that all heads of departments shall be recognized experts in such work as may devolve upon incumbents of said offices or persons specially fitted by education, training or experience to perform same, and shall be elected to their respective offices, without regard to party affiliation. The mayor in making an appointment or nomination shall file with the city clerk a certificate testifying to these requirements.

This section is intended to compel the selection of heads of departments possessed of qualification for the position to which they are elected. The restrictions are similar enough to previous commissions and to secure persons of recognized ability. If qualified persons are placed in charge of departments, much of the inefficiency in conduct of public affairs will be removed. The present charter allows a commissioner to have charge of several departments without practical training or experience, with the result that he must depend upon his subordinates to run the departments for him. He cannot direct in a capable manner the management of departments. The departments simply run themselves. He is unable to point out where mistakes occur and correct them. If a subordinate employee tells him that a certain thing is right, he is obliged to accept such viewpoint, and cannot prove to himself that it is wrong and direct that it be done differently. The department now runs the commissioner, and not the commissioner the department.

Section 34—Provides that heads of departments may appear before the city council of their own volition and at the request of the city council shall appear before the city council and give information in relation to anything connected with the duties of their respective departments. This is the connection that permits the city council to keep in touch with the workings of departments and if a department head is not on the job, to know the reason why.

Section 35—Provides that the mayor shall require the city treasurer to give a bond in the amount of $50,000; the auditor a bond in the amount of $10,000; and the purchasing agent a bond in the amount of $5,000. The premiums on said bonds shall be paid by the city. No city money shall be deposited in any national bank or trust company of which the city treasurer is an officer, director or agent.

The next article will take up the important section relating to removals.

David Hackett State President

and J. M. Hogan Named

NORTH ADAMS, June 1.—With the election and installation of officers and the passage of a resolution in favor of an old-age pension bill, the annual convention of the State Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, closed yesterday afternoon. Revere was named as the next convention city. Following are the officers chosen:

Junior past state president, Joseph P. Coy, Pittsfield; president, David J. Hackett, Lowell; vice president, Edward F. Delaney, New Bedford; secretary, Michael L. Foley, Pittsfield; treasurer, William J. Murphy, Fall River; chaplain, William J. Mackey, North Adams; inside guard, George A. Kennedy, Lowell; outside guard, John McQuillan, Lynn; conductor, John M. Almost a Physical Wreck Ruff
Builds Himself Back to Vigorous Health

"I had heard a great deal about Tanlac and since trying it myself I can conscientiously say it is the best medicine I have ever seen in all my experience," said David Ruff, 250 N. 55th st., Philadelphia, recently. Mr. Ruff has lived in Philadelphia all his life and is well known and highly respected.

DAVID RUFF
250 N. 55th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"My health was all broken up," he explained. "My stomach was all out of order and gave me so much trouble that I actually dreaded to go to the table. I would simply rather go without eating than suffer the awful misery I knew would follow. I would blot up so with gas that my heart would beat a terrific rate and it seemed sometimes I was being smothered to death. I just had to fight for my breath. My nerves were all undone. I slept poorly and was all the time having headaches that were almost blinding. I lost weight and felt so weak and run down all over I could hardly do any work."

Sometime ago a good friend of mine told me he knew Tanlac would help me and he spoke so positive about it that I took his advice. And I can say right now that Tanlac is the first medicine I ever saw that will do exactly what they say it will. Five bottles have the same as made me all over again. I can eat anything I ever could in my life and have gained 15 pounds in weight. I'm no more nervous than a child, sleep fine and it just makes me feel happy to be enjoying such good health. Tanlac certainly is a great medicine."

The Lowell delegates who attended the North Adams convention were John M. Hogan, Martin J. Crowe, Cornelius T. O'Keefe and George W. Carey. The state aerie is composed of representatives of 57 series with a membership of 75,000. There were 269 delegates at the convention.

Whereas, the Fraternal Order of Eagles is particularly interested in this question, not only because of the economic status of a large portion of its membership, but because of its fundamental principle of upholding justice; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Massachusetts State Aerie of Eagles, that we are in favor of governmental old-age pensions, and that we invite our sister-state aeries and the subordinate aeries of the order to unite with us in requesting the grant of such a pension act in 1921 to take such action as will awaken public sentiment to the wisdom of state and federal provision that shall remove from the minds of the laborers of the land the haunting fear of want and pauperism in old age.

David J. Hackett is a past worthy president of the Lowell aerie of Eagles and came all the way from Cleveland, O. Mr. Hackett has been on the road for the national convention committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles for several weeks past, explaining the benefits to be derived in sending delegates to the national convention which will be held at Newark, N. J., August 12 to 15 inclusive. He left Lowell on his last trip May 2 and visited series at Atlantic City, New York, Columbia and Harrisburg, Penn., Dayton, O., Covington, Ky., Indianapolis, Ind., Denver, Colo., Muncie, Ind., Norwood, Cincinnati and Cleveland, Ohio. He will spend a few days at his home in this city and will leave again, expecting this time to go clean through to the Pacific coast.

Union leaders withheld comment on the board's decision, but it was freely stated at sessions of the railway employees' union here during the board's hearings on the decreases that cuts of 10 to 12 per cent. would meet little opposition.

Leaders of the four big brotherhoods have called a meeting here for July 1, when the wage decreases are effective, to discuss the award.

H. E. Hyman, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and S. M. Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western, declared that the reductions were "not sufficient to meet the demands of the situation."

In a supplemental memorandum the board points out that during government control the wages of railway employees were increased from an average of $13 a month in December, 1917, to $115 in January, 1920, and to $111 by the increase of last July. About 10 per cent. of the employees, chiefly those unskilled, the board said, had thus received increases approximating 100 per cent., while the average increase over the pay prior to federal control was 51 per cent.

The board estimates that the present cut would mean "an average monthly salary of about $125 for all employees. But such an average means of course that, while some workers would earn it, many thousands would fall far short of that figure."

Wipes Out Increase of 1920

The decision grants reductions varying from 5 to 15 cents an hour, or from 5 to 15 per cent., and in the case of section laborers, completely wipes out the increase granted that class of employees by the $600,000,000 wage award of July 20, 1920.

For section men the reduction was approximately 15 per cent. Switchmen and shop crafts were given a 3 per cent. reduction, while the train service men were cut approximately 7 per cent. Car repairers were cut about 10 per cent.

Common labor pay, over which the railroad men have the hardest fight, is to be reduced 6 to 8 cents an hour, cutting freight truckers' average monthly wages to $57.10 and track laborers to $57.11.

This new schedule gives section men an average daily wage of $3.92 for

No Americans Appear for Tourney

CHANTILLY, France, June 1.—(By the Associated Press)—No American players appeared as the French amateur golf championship tournament started today. Most of the American stars who competed in the British championship had entered for the event here, including Chick Evans, Bobby Jones, Francis Ouimet, Dr. Paul Hunter and W. G. Fownes, Jr. Evans was definitely scratched and the others were not heard from.

To Report Peace Resolution

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The house foreign affairs committee will meet Friday to report a peace resolution, but it is not expected to reach the house in time for consideration this week. Republican members of the committee already have agreed, it is said to report the Porter resolution, which merely provides for a termination of war, in place of the Knox resolution, passed by the senate, repealing the declaration of war. Democrats have indicated that they will oppose the peace measure, regardless of the form in which it is presented.

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

On legal affidavit, John Hart Brittain, business man, certified to this: "My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. An expert said that he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth."

"Yet now, at an age over 60, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair. No trace of baldness. The pictures shown here are from my photographs."

INDIANS' SECRET OF HAIR GROWTH

Mr. Brittain certified further: "At a time when I had become discouraged at trying to grow my hair again, I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian 'medicine man' who had an elixir that he asserted would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as profuse as in my youthful days."

True Hair Grower at Last

"That I was astonished and happy is expressing my state of mind. Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant in the scalp, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the then mysterious pomade. I negotiated for and came into possession of the principle for preparing this, now called KOTALKO, and later had this recipe put into practical form by a chemist. That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved."

It has been proved in very many cases that hair roots did not die even when the hair fell out through dandruff, fever, alopecia areata, or certain other hair or scalp disorders.

Positively KOTALKO is one deliciously reliable hair restorer that succeeds upon genuine merit. Buy a box of KOTALKO at the drug store. Or ask for KOTALKO at the toilet goods or drug counter of any large department store. Remember the name. Accept nothing else as "just as good." Money back GUARANTEED. Or write to KOTALKO, 1001 Broadway, New York, for a full and complete list of KOTALKO agents. A PROOF BOX of KOTALKO with BROCHURE, postpaid. ## CANAL POOR PLACE FOR BIGGEST GAME OF YEAR FANCY DIVING FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Attempting an exhibition of fancy diving last evening in the Pawtucket canal, Miss Willard, connected with the California shows, now playing at Washington park, was held below the surface by the powerful water and after a few moments she was saved by a "Guard" Farrell, a trick motor-cycle rider. When Miss Willard came to the surface she was scarcely able to keep afloat, so grueling had been her struggle with the current. Farrell hurriedly kicked off his shoes and dove to her rescue. No serious injuries were suffered by the young woman, who will start her regular diving exhibitions tomorrow. Farrell proceeded to the armory, where he was given dry clothes by Capt. MacBryen of Battery B, which is running the shows.

The biggest game of the year for Lowell high school basketball team came this afternoon at Spaulding park, when Coach Donahue's men lined up against Lawrence high in the second contest of the year between the two clubs. Lowell succeeds in defeating her down river rivals this afternoon she will have an opportunity to play a third game and possibly win the series. However, she is bowed in defeat a second time, Lawrence will have demonstrated her 1921 superiority beyond a doubt. There was a large crowd on hand when the game started shortly after 3:15 and weather conditions were ideal.

LOWELL FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION

The next and last meeting of the Lowell Fish and Game association will be the nomination and election of a president to serve out the unexpired term of the late president, Simon B. Harris. It will be a very difficult matter for the association to replace Mr. Harris, but there are several members who are capable of filling the office and whose interest in the association and what it stands for approximates that of the late president whose sudden demise on the evening of May 4 came a distinct shock to every member of the association.

LEGAL - NOTICES

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE
By virtue of the Power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Joseph Piccardi to the Cosmopolitan Trust Company, dated Jan. 22, 1919, and recorded with Middlesex North District Deeds Book 556, Page 593, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing thereon, I, the undersigned, do hereby give notice that on Friday, June 18, 1921, at three o'clock in the afternoon, the real estate hereby mortgaged and made a part thereof described substantially as follows:

1. A certain lot of land together with the buildings thereon situated on the Southernly part of the town of Tewksbury, in the County of Middlesex, on the Eastern side of the road leading from Lowell to Boston, containing about two acres, and two poles and being Lot No. 1 on a plan of a piece of woodland in Tewksbury, belonging to the heirs of Charles W. Foster, deceased, by Joseph Piccardi, Surveyor, dated June 3, 1921, and recorded with Middlesex County North District Deeds, in Book No. 556, Page 593, and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at the Northwestern corner of the said road at Lot No. 10 on said plan, thence South 89° 15' E. 10 rods, 35 rods, 20 links to Lot No. 11 on said plan, thence Southernly on Lot No. 11, 9 rods to Lot No. 2 on said plan, thence Southernly on Lot No. 2, 2 rods, 20 links to the road above named, thence Northernly by the said road to the bound first named.

Being the same premises conveyed to the said Joseph Piccardi by deed of Jacob L. Burtt, dated October 1, 1901, and recorded with said Deeds, in Book 412, Page 51.

2. A certain lot of land together with the buildings thereon situated on the Eastern side of the road leading from Lowell to Boston in said Tewksbury, containing about two acres and two rods, and being Lot No. 2 on the above mentioned plan, and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at the Western corner of the said lot on the said road at Lot No. 1 on said plan, thence Easternly in a straight line, thence Southernly by said Lot No. 1, 35 rods, 20 links to Lot No. 11 on said plan, thence turning at right angles Southernly, bounded by the line of the said Lot No. 11, 9 rods to Lot No. 2 on said plan, thence turning at right angles, and running Westernly in a straight line on said Lot No. 3, 55 rods, 10 links to said road, thence turning at right angles on said road, Northernly 9 rods to the place of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to the said Joseph Piccardi by deed of Jacob L. Burtt, dated November 16, 1907, and recorded with said Deeds, in Book 412, Page 178.

3. A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated on the Eastern side of Main street in said Tewksbury and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at the Southwesterly corner at stake at land now or formerly of Jacob L. Burtt, thence Easternly by said land now or formerly of said Burtt, 250 feet more or less to a bound three feet Southwest of a black oak tree, thence Northwesterly 345 feet more or less to a stake at the highway, thence Southernly by said highway, 155 feet more or less to the point of beginning.

Being a portion of the premises conveyed to said Joseph Piccardi by deed of Enoch W. Foster, dated October 5, 1907, and recorded with said Deeds, in Book 412, Page 50.

4. A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in the Southern part of said Tewksbury, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at an Iron Pipe found on Salem Road so-called, at other land now or formerly of said Enoch W. Foster, thence South 53° 02' 30" East, 15 feet to other land now or late of said Joseph Piccardi, thence by said land now or late of said Joseph Piccardi, South 56° 52' 10" West, 35.47 feet to an Iron Pipe in swamp, thence North 53° 02' 30" East, 30 feet to an Iron Pipe, thence North 30° 22' 30" East, still by said land now or late of said Enoch W. Foster, 254.54 feet to an Iron Pipe at point of beginning.

Containing about 18.331 square feet of land.

Being the same premises conveyed to the said Joseph Piccardi by the said Enoch W. Foster, by deed dated June 23, 1917, and recorded with said Deeds, in Book 551, Page 220.

Excepting, however, from the fourth and fifth lots of land above described, certain parcels of land taken by the County Commissioners for the County of Middlesex, in the matter of the relocation of Salem road in said Tewksbury, said parcels being taken March 31, 1917, and recorded April 7, 1917.

For a more particular description of the parcels thus taken, reference may be had to an accompanying plan filed with said taking in said Registry of Deeds.

Said premises will be sold subject to liens, to any easements and restrictions that may be of record, and municipal and other liens, if any there be, $2000 in cash will be required at the

A commendation for submitting the most meritorious thesis out of a class of 250 at B. U. School of Secretarial Science, was awarded to Miss Carolyn W. Pattillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pattillo, of 725 Bridge Street, at the commencement exercises of that institution held last Friday. Miss Pattillo's thesis, which treats of paper manufactures, will be printed and bound, while copies will be placed in the Boston public library and the library of Boston University. Graduating from Lowell high school with high honors, Miss Pattillo entered B. U. where recently she was chosen as a member of the special poetry class of the university. While in high school, she was awarded the Boston Traveler essay prize.

HERMANN "CHEAP SKATE," SAY YEGGS

CINCINNATI, June 1.—Four robbers bound the night watchman of the Cincinnati National League baseball park early yesterday, broke open three safes and stole $1251. The robbers, displeased because of the comparatively small amount of money they found, informed the helpless watchman that "Harry" Hermann must be a "cheap skate."

Evidently the thieves believed they would find the receipts for two Memorial games in the safes; instead, they got only the amount that was left for use as change by ticket sellers for yesterday's game.

PLANTING VINE CROPS

Garden News Story from the Middlesex County Bureau of Agriculture and Home Economics

Pumpkins, squash and cucumbers should be planted this week as the ground has now become thoroughly warmed and there is little probability of much cold weather. As these vegetables cover considerable ground it is not a good practice to plant more than a few hills of cucumbers and summer squash if the garden space is limited.

Squash vine borers which destroyed the entire crop in so many gardens last year must also be taken into consideration of one square foot of getting a good crop of winter squash and pumpkins are about as small as any vegetable that can be planted. When there is land enough to permit the planting of crops of this kind, and insect pests are controlled, pumpkins and winter squash can be depended upon to produce a very good yield.

The soil for all vine growing vegetables should be rich and in order to give the seeds a quick start a shovel full of well-rotted manure should be placed at the bottom of the hill. This should be covered with an inch of fine loam and a dozen seeds scattered over an area of the square foot. The seeds should then be covered to a depth of two inches. After the plants have started their second leaves, they should be thinned to four in a hill, being careful to leave the strongest plants and as far apart as possible.

Cucumbers should be planted in hills four feet apart each way. In small gardens they are frequently planted in drills and thinned to one every 12 in. when three inches high. Some good varieties are Arlington white spine, Davis Perfect and Boston Pickling.

Summer squash grow in bush form so they require no more area than cucumbers. It is very important that they be heavily fertilized in order to force rapid growth. Crookneck varieties give the most universal satisfaction.

Winter squash is very prolific and five or six hills will supply an average family. As the vines cover a great deal of ground they should be planted eight to ten feet apart each way. The best varieties are Delicious and Hubbard.

Sugar pumpkins are the only variety suitable for home gardens. Hills should be six feet apart each way. In order to economize space it is a good plan to plant all vine crops on the edge of the garden so that the vines can be trained to run out on the grass instead of taking up space in the garden that might be used for other crops.

French and Turks in Guerilla Warfare

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Guerilla warfare between French and Turkish nationalist troops has been renewed in Cilicia. The Turks are preparing to recapture the city of Antab from the French, while nationalist leaders are being arrested by the French authorities. Henry Franklin-Bouillon, former member of the French chamber of deputies, who has been in this city some time, and had intended to go to Angora, will not proceed to the seat of the Turkish nationalist government because of the possibility that he might be held hostage there.

Foreign-Born Girls Are Entertained at Lowell Homes

GUESTS AT HOUSE PARTY

"Americanization" doesn't mean merely the teaching of our customs to the foreign-born," say social workers. "It is rather a mutual exchange of the good things of our civilization for the good things of theirs. We can give the alien certain gifts, and they in turn bring to our shores abilities and talents which are peculiarly their own. Americanization is really nothing more than the absorption of the good things of the customs of foreign lands, and the conferring upon our new citizens of the best we have here."

The International Institute, local social service body whose work is exclusively with girls born in foreign countries, but who are in America as the daughters of immigrants, agrees along these lines. It is found that in musical attainments, in folk lore, in the dancing of the people of many countries, in artistic handiwork and costume ideas, the girls of the various national groups can make substantial contributions to the city.

It is to repay them for what they bestow upon Lowell, that these new residents of the city have been taken into the homes, and entertained on the estates, of prominent local social workers, and make the Lowell girls specialists to arrange for parties which the Greek, the Polish, and the other racial groups of girls shall be the guests of Lowell people at the residences. The accompanying photograph shows some of the young women who are expected at a recent house party on the grounds of a Lowell woman's estate.

MILL EMPLOYEES ARE CLEVER PERFORMERS

The minstrel show recently conducted by the Massachusetts Association of Mill Employees, the talent of the mill employees was so pronounced, that the attention of leaders of the American legion posts in various parts of the state has been attracted with the result that the company, or a part of it, has been signed up to tour what is known as the Legion circuit.

These amateurs are all employees of the Massachusetts mills and they form one of the best group of performers seen in this city in a long time. Among them are exceptionally good singers, clever comedians as well as dancers of rare ability and they have a supply of entertainment numbers on hand that will rival many professional companies.

Inasmuch as the legion circuit calls for male performers only, the women of the Massachusetts Association have been dropped from the cast. And, the following company has been organized: Martin Maguire, James Deignan, Jack McCardle, Frank Kelly, William McGrath, James Walker, Robert Oates, Charles Mathewson, Edward Donohue, and Thomas Grouke, the latter to act as interlocutor. Their first engagement will be at Haverhill, then they will perform at Newburyport, Milford, N. H., and Manchester, N. H., and it is expected that before these engagements are filled, other calls will be received.

The associates who took part in the minstrel show will enjoy a social hour in the rooms of the club in one of the mill buildings this evening, the affair to be in the form of a banquet followed by brief post prandial exercises and general dancing. Thomas Grouke will act as toastmaster and the special guests will include Agent William A. Mitchell, Superintendent Overseer George Blynn, Assistant Overseer George Taylor, the mill nurse, Charles Eggle, organizer of the club and John Cheswick, president of the club. The speakers will be Messrs. Mitchell and Eggle. The festivities will start at 7:30 o'clock.

Survivors Get Welcome

ham and his men were welcomed warmly. All were well although they had lost their effects when their ship went down, and with Halifax hospitality offered freely. Captain Geel and the rescue ship Elsie prepared to leave again for the fishing ground, satisfied that the Esperanto's crew would receive all possible care.

Captain Alden Geel told the first story of the Esperanto's end. The cup winner was fishing off Sable Island Monday morning, he said, when she struck a sunken wreck. Water rushed in at once, and the schooner began to settle. In less than 20 minutes her hold was flooded and Captain Benham had been forced to order her abandoned. The crew had to leave so hastily that nothing could be taken.

The Elsie's skipper said he learned of the disaster only when the Esperanto's men boarded his vessel three hours later.

The men had rowed about three miles from the scene of the sinking in a thigh wig, and strong breeze. Captain Benham said he set out early Monday morning from off the north-west light of Sable Island to a position off the northwest bar in search of fish. The weather was thick. Finding the fishing poor there, he made for the southwest bar.

It was on this course in nine fathoms of water that the Esperanto struck the submerged wreck, ripping off her port broadside. The craft tilted quickly and the crew had just enough time to get into the dories.

After rowing for an hour the fog cleared and the Elsie was seen at the middle station three miles to the eastward. After taking the Esperanto's crew aboard the Elsie stood by the wreck, remaining in the vicinity for an hour.

Captain Geel said he believed a wireless report would be made and this reason he did not finally set out for Halifax until Monday night. With light headwinds confronting him, he was unable to make port before this morning.

Gloucester Rejoices

GLoucester, June 1.—Gloucester was glad today. Word of the safety of Captain Tom Benham and all hands of the Esperanto, landed at Halifax, N. S., by the schooner Elsie, was received with relief. A good ship had gone, the queen of the fleet, but with those aboard saved, the loss came easier.

The circumstances of the Esperanto going it was agreed contained nothing of discredit to Gloucester or their ships. It was not a failure of the ship to function, no error of navigation nor of judgment, no lack of strength in sails or hull. The word received by the Gloucester Fishing Co., according to Russell Smith, one of the owners, was that the Esperanto went down after striking a submerged wreck.

With the schooner Elsie, a member of the same fleet, she was fishing off Sable Island Sunday. The Esperanto struck the sunken wreckage sharply. A hole was caused, she tilted, and within 20 minutes of the accident had sunk. The Elsie took aboard Captain Benham and all his men and landed them at Halifax this morning.

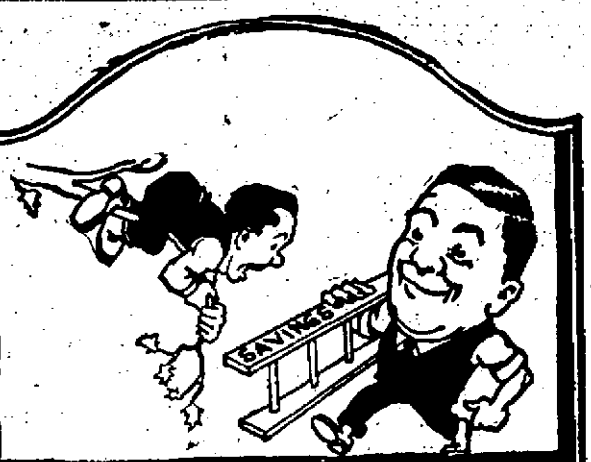

To his report of the loss of the Esperanto, Captain Benham added a request for another vessel that he might remain on the fishing grounds.

To his report of the loss of the Esperanto, Captain Benham added a request for another vessel that he might remain on the fishing grounds.

"Any show for another vessel to start all over again? Am holding the crew," the message said.

Benjamin A. Smith, vessels manager for the Gloucester Fishing Co., answered immediately saying: "Yes, we will have another vessel for you." Mr. Smith said that no schooner was available in port at the moment but that as soon as one arrived, it probably would be sent to Halifax with a skeleton crew to be turned over to Captain Benham.

The scene of the accident was described by Captain Benham in his report as "south from Northwest light. It was very foggy and his vessel went down in nine fathoms of water," he said.

FISHERMEN MADE BIG HAUL IN IPSWICH BAY

A group of employees of the Boston & Maine car shops in Billerica, who are now enjoying a forced vacation because of the plant running on short time, went on a deep sea fishing trip at Ipswich yesterday and this morning one of them reported that the day's sport netted 100 pounds of fish.

There were fourteen young men in the party, some from Lowell and others from Billerica, Wilmington and Woburn and all spent a most enjoyable day. They had chartered two motorboats, the "Bertha M" and "Billy B" and from their decks in Ipswich bay, they enjoyed the sport to their hearts' content. The men remained out several hours and when they returned to shore they had more fish than they could carry. The Lowell men in the party were Arthur H. Groux, Paul Chandler, James Cosgrove, Thomas Gilchrist, Edmond Fontaine, Donat Placard and others.

The matter will come up at the next meeting of the municipal council.

THE SELFISHNESS OF GIVING

A man of our acquaintance was once praised for his generosity. He denied that he gave because he was generous in giving. He insisted that he was absolutely selfish in giving. He gave because it gave him pleasure to give.

But isn't that the real reason for giving—to give something to somebody because you want to give that particular thing to that particular person? That is where the pleasure of giving comes in, and if that kind of pleasure is selfish let us all be selfish.

Surprise gifts are a delight to both the person who chooses the gift and the person who receives it. There is a friendliness about a gift sent on an affectionate impulse which enhances its charm.

Cherished for years are the gifts of the bride and graduate. Such gifts are life-long treasures inseparably associated with the eventful day of weddings and graduations.

You will find many gift suggestions in our shop. Whether the amount you wish to invest in the selfishness of giving be large or small, you will find something which will fit both your desire and your purse.

This store, for almost a century, has been looked upon as the Gift Shop of Lowell and vicinity.

The name "Raynes" on a gift package has the same deep significance as the word "Sterling" on silver. May we have the pleasure?

LOWELL'S FOURTH OF JULY OBSERVANCE

Lowell's 101st observance of the Fourth of July will be much along the same lines as last year, with the addition of a big carnival on the South common under the auspices of the Lowell post of the American legion, supplementing the usual municipally supervised midway there.

The day's municipal observance will include the firing of salutes at sunrise and sunset, the tolling of chiming bells, and a display of fireworks on the South common in the evening. The municipal council will take action in the near future on the observance of the day and it is expected, will delegate to Mayor Perry D. Thompson full authority to make arrangements for the occasion, as it did last year.

If this is done, the mayor will arrange his schedule of municipal band concerts for the season so that a number of them may be held on the holiday, and he will turn over to a local concern the contract for the fireworks exhibition in the evening. It is expected that various organizations of the city will prepare elaborate sporting programs for the day and the various amusement resorts will offer special attractions. Up to the present time, however, no plans have been made contemplating a parade or other formal military observance.

The big celebration of the occasion is expected to be the American Legion carnival which starts July 3 and continues through the holiday. The Fourth of July will come on Monday this year, thus giving celebrators a double holiday.

CARD OF THANKS. We, the undersigned, take this method to express our sincere thanks to the many neighbors, friends and relatives, who by their acts of kindness, and beautiful floral and spiritual offerings, helped to lessen our grief in the death of our beloved husband, Mr. Joseph A. Bryant, O.M.I. We shall never be forgotten. Mrs. MARGARET BAXTER, MASTER WILLIAM BAXTER, MR. JOSEPH BAXTER and family, MRS. JOHN CHAIN and family.

IN MEMORIAM. In sad and loving memory of a beloved husband and father, Ernest L. Lundgren, who left us one year ago today, June 1st, 1920. He is gone but we shall miss him, to him we shall be ever true. We shall linger to caress him. When we breathe our evening prayer, Sadly missed by his wife and children.

GAS HOUSE CASES CALLED

Two Defendants Found Not Guilty and Their Discharge Granted

Third Defendant, Not a Striker, Gets Suspended Sentence to Reformatory

An array of counsel were present in the police court this morning for the trial of the so-called "gas house" cases, involving alleged offenses by strikers. The case of John McCaffery, former employee at the gas plant, was first heard. John Deland, who claimed to have been attacked by the defendant and two unknown men, was the sole government witness. He stated that he had been working for Daniel H. Walker, a contractor, who has done work for the gas company. He has known McCaffery for eight or ten years, he declared. On the morning of May 23, he said, about 8.30 o'clock, McCaffery approached him in the company of two other men and remarked, with a vile epithet, "So you're working in the gas works?" The defendant then punched him, said witness, knocking him down after which he was kicked twice, once under the jaw and once in the ribs. The defense consisted of an attempt to establish an alibi. McCaffery took the stand and told of going to the city hall to work on the morning of the alleged assault. He stayed there, as it was raining, until after the time he was charged with assaulting Deland. Then J. Garvey, assistant superintendent of streets, said that on the morning of May 23 McCaffery answered to the roll-call soon after 7 o'clock. The witness told of seeing the defendant

Comments From Bench That Less Clothing Than Formerly "Covers Law"

Echo of Stillman Case Creeps Into Divorce Session of Superior Court

Abbreviated feminine costumes were the subject of comment by Judge Louis S. Cox in the superior court today during the progress of the trial of the suit of Fanny B. Wells of Lowell for divorce from Leroy A. Wells on the grounds of desertion and gross wanton and cruel non-support. A witness for the plaintiff testified that while Mrs. Wells was living with her husband in 1917, "she had only clothes enough to cover the law." "It required a good deal in those days, but not so very much now," remarked the judge. Mrs. Wells, testifying in her own behalf, asserted that her husband had behaved nicely toward her for a short time after her marriage. She said that he then began to drink and would go away and leave her for several days at a time with nothing to eat in the

CUT R. R. WAGES $400,000,000

Decision for Reductions Handed Down Today by Railroad Labor Board

Two-Thirds of Increase Granted Last July Ordered Deducted Beginning July 1

CHICAGO, June 1.—Approximately two-thirds of the wage increase granted railroad employees last July by the railroad labor board was ordered deducted beginning July 1, in the board's decision announced today. From this increase last year of $600,000,000 a year in salaries of railroad labor, nearly $400,000,000 will be cut, it is estimated. In the case of the general class of maintenance of way laborers, the entire increase of 8 1/2 cents an hour was withdrawn, while in other classes having the larger number of employees, the cuts ranged from 13 to 8 and from 10 to 6 cents an hour, as compared with the award of last July. Although the wage cuts are to apply only on the 104 roads which had filed petitions for the decrease, the board's announcement said that application of TULSA, Okla., June 1.—Nearly square blocks of the negro section of Tulsa, where an armed conflict has been in progress between whites and negroes since early last night, resulting in a reported death list of at least six whites and 5 negroes, and a rapidly increasing list of wounded, were in flames today. The fire was reported spreading and threatening to wipe out a white residence section in the standpipe and Sunset hill additions.

GUESTS AT HOUSE PARTY

"Americanization" doesn't mean merely the teaching of our customs to the foreign-born, say social workers. It is rather a mutual exchange of the good things of our civilization for the good things of theirs. We can give the alien certain gifts, and they in their turn bring to our shores abilities and talents which are peculiarly their own. Americanization is really nothing more than the absorption of the best that comes here from foreign lands, and the conferring upon our new citizens of the best we have here. The International Institute, local social service body whose work is exclusively with girls born in foreign countries, but who are in America as the nation of their adoption, works along these lines. It is found that in musical attainments, in folk lore, in the dancing of the people of many countries, in artistic handicraft and costume ideas, the girls of the various national groups can make substantial contributions to the city. It is to repay them for what they bestow upon Lowell, that these new residents of the city have been taken into the homes, and entertained on the estates of prominent local society women. The institute makes it one of its specialties to arrange for parties in which the Greek, the Polish, and all the other racial groups of girls shall be the guests of Lowell people at their residences. The accompanying photograph shows some of the young ladies as they appeared at a recent house party on the grounds of a Lowell woman's estate.

SELECTING JURY FOR MURDER TRIAL

DEDHAM, June 1.—Three prospective jurors were seated when the examination of witnesses was resumed today preliminary to the trial of Nicola Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti for the killing of a paymaster and his guard at South Braintree a year ago. Virtually all of a panel of 175 talesmen had been exhausted yesterday and last night in obtaining three men qualified and acceptable to try the men for murder. Another panel of similar size was available today and 150 were ordered to report tomorrow, but it was considered doubtful whether this aggregate list of 500 would develop the 12 men to fill the jurybox. As a result officials were ready to inaugurate measures to bring more men before the court for examination.

$35,733,000 FROM GERMANY

First Instalment of Reparation
Payment to Allies Now in N. Y. Bank

Payments Made in Transfer of Banking Credits of Four Financial Houses

NEW YORK, June 1.—The first instalment of Germany's reparation payment to the allies to be made through the United States—$35,733,000—was today in the Federal Reserve bank of New York. The German reparation commission completed the deposit through Hallgarten & Co., the Equitable Trust Co., Speyer & Co., and the Guaranty Trust Co.

The payments were not made in actual cash or gold, but in the transfer of the banking credits of the four financial houses. The bankers on several days have been sending to the Federal Reserve bank a series of their own checks against the balances of the German government in their institutions. The credit thus transferred was placed in the Federal Reserve bank, to the credit of the Bank of England and the Bank of France.

Financial men today recalled that Germany recently had been buying dollars by the sale of exchange abroad, causing a tremendous decline in the exchange of all countries. This dollar credit acquired by Germany was believed to have been assembled in New York to meet the allied reparation payments. The amount thus acquired in the past week alone was estimated by various bankers as from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Another factor in the assembling of German-owned dollars here was declared to be United States currency spent in Germany by the American army of occupation. Several sales of paper money have arrived from Hamburg in the last few weeks and American soldiers have declared that the money disappeared completely after it was once spent in a German shop.

About a month ago, the reparations commission announced that payments made by Germany would be exchanged into the American dollar as the exchange elated subject to fluctuation.

PLAN IMPROVEMENTS IN WEST CENTRALVILLE

The first step toward proposed improvements in West Centralville was taken last evening at a mass meeting of the residents of the district held under the auspices of the Centralville Social club in its quarters in West Sixth street. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing matters pertaining to the welfare of the district, particularly the eliminating of the Alken steel dump and the improvements of streets in general and although it was an 11th hour affair, there was a large attendance and all present were unanimous in endorsing a movement, that it is hoped, will bring about better conditions in that section of the city.

The meeting was presided over by

MAXIME LEPINE
Chairman

Maxime Lepine, a prominent resident of Centralville, who briefly explained the purpose of the gathering, saying, "It is high time that the residents and taxpayers of the district get together and protest against conditions that are now existing and that have been existing in the locality for years. He referred particularly to the disagreeable condition of the dump and the bad condition of the streets in that locality. In the course of the meeting it was stated that the members of the Crescent Hill association is ready to lend a hand in any movement that will have for its object the improvement of the district across the river.

Several of those present expressed themselves in favor of forming an improvement association in an endeavor to have the streets of the district repaired and the Alken street dump abolished. Among those who spoke were former Alderman John H. Beauvoir, Contractor Jacques Bolser, Charles L. Cordeau of the Cordeau Drug company, John T. Burns and many others.

At the close of the meeting it was voted to prepare several petitions for the improvement of the district, which will be circulated and later presented to the municipal council. It was announced that last evening's meeting was the first in a series of its kind, which will be held in the course of the summer.

MEETING OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

Residents of Highlands Want Bungalow for Domestic Science Classes

Committee Favors Plain Bungalow—Will Cost Between $6000 and $8000

More than 50 residents of the Highlands appeared before the school committee at its regular meeting last evening to request that the committee make provision for the erecting of a bungalow adjacent to the Charles W. Morey school for the use of domestic science classes. After hearing the prayer of the petitioners the committee voted to favor the project and instructed Chairman Thomas B. Delaney and Supt. Hugh J. Molloy to appear before the municipal council and ask for an appropriation to erect the building. The cost of the bungalow is estimated at between $6000 and $8000.

The petitioners, who were present last evening, a majority of them women, were backed by a petition bearing 600 names. The petitioners pointed out that it would be more feasible to erect a new building now rather than fit up one of the regular class rooms in the annex which is now nearing completion and face the possibility of having to give up the room in a year or two for the use of regular classes.

The petitioners, through one of their spokesmen, Edward J. Tierney, assured the school committee that they would support it in any effort it made before members of the municipal council to secure the necessary funds. Chairman Delaney of the school board said that the board had promised at the beginning of the year to live within its budget and as far as getting any money from that source was concerned, the project was out of the question. He felt the committee should be cautious in spending money on this project in view of the fact that there are so many schools in dire need of room for ordinary class work.

The petitioners, on the other hand, said that domestic science training was compulsory and that the cost of erecting a bungalow would not be as great as they had feared. Those who spoke in favor of the project besides Mr. Tierney were William W. Donnell, headmaster of the Morey school; Lewis E. MacBryne and Supt. Molloy.

After the discussion, Mr. Warner moved that the committee go on record as favoring the bungalow for domestic science classes and that the chairman and superintendent be instructed to appear before the municipal council and ask for an appropriation to cover the same. It was so voted.

Mr. Markham then moved that the chairman also place before the council the need for funds to provide suitable accommodations in other sections of the city and the motion was carried. The committee granted Miss Dorothy Farnsworth a fourth grade certificate as a kindergarten teacher and Miss M. Catherine Gallagher was granted a second grade certificate. The petition of Peter Gulebian, teacher of manual training in the local department, that he be allowed to teach manual training in North Billerica on afternoons next year was denied. The resignation of Fred Abbinson, a teacher at the high school, was received and a vote of thanks for faithful service extended. A recommendation from the superintendent that the teachers of the continuation school be allowed a month's salary to attend a summer session at Hyannis from August 12 to 31, was laid on the table pending further investigation.

The committee also discussed the proposed summer camp for schoolboys to be held at Long Sought Farm pond during the summer months and the examination for teachers to be held here June 23.

DISMISSES DR.

DONLAN'S PETITION
BOSTON, June 1.—The full bench of the supreme court, yesterday, dismissed the proceedings brought by Dr. Charles E. Donlan, former superintendent of the Long Island almshouse and hospital to restrain the city council from continuing to hold a hearing on charges against him.

Dr. Donlan contended he could elect to have the charges heard by the board of trustees in charge of the hospital or the city council, and since he had made no election the city council was without authority to act. He claimed his right as a world war veteran.

If You Want More Bodily and Mental Vigor

Try Me I Only Require One Minute
your time each day. I have helped give thousands of run-down, nervous folks, increased strength and ance, in two weeks' time, in many instances.

I am not a doctor but PHYSICIANS HAVE OFTEN ADVISED PEOPLE
TO TRY ME. Former UNITED STATES SENATORS, United States Army
Generals, Judges of U. S. Courts and many well known people have availed themselves of my help.

STRONG MEN, ATHLETES, BRAIN WORKERS—they know what I can do when they want the "stay there" strength and endurance that wins.

WOMEN WHO ARE WEAK, nervous and irritable as a result of overwork, worry or household drudgery have often obtained most surprising relief from me.

When, as a result of iron starvation, you get up feeling tired in the morning, when you can no longer do your day's work without being all fagged out at night; when your digestion all goes wrong, or you have pains across the back and your face looks pale and drawn, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but try me. I only take one minute of your time each day. I am NUX-ATED IRON—organic iron. I am like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. I help make strong, rosy, red blooded men, and beautiful, healthy, rosy-cheeked women. Without iron, your blood becomes pale, thin and watery and loses its power to change food into living tissue, therefore nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the full strength out of it.

To prove to yourself what I can do, get your doctor to take a specimen of your blood and make a "blood count" of your red blood corpuscles. They try me for one month and have a new "blood count" made and see how your red blood corpuscles have increased and how much stronger and better you feel. Now the color has come back to your face and how much stronger and more steady your nerves now are. I will not injure your teeth nor disturb your stomach. You need not lose a cent on me. If I do not give your satisfactory results my manufacturer will refund your money. Get only me. Beware never in liquid form—Look for the letters "N. I." on every label—and the word "Nuxated" on every package. Sold at all druggists.—Adv.

FOR GENERAL SERVICE

The General Service Motor club was called into being because of the great demand for a really up to date, broad visioned automobile organization in Massachusetts looking after the varied auto interests of owners. One of its aims is the bringing of the general public and the motoring public into more friendly relations so that each will understand the other and respect its rights. This is accomplished chiefly through educational campaigns by the G.S.M.C. This department is now conducting a safety first campaign among the school children in reference to the use of streets. The Lowell division of the G.S.M.C. has offered a cash prize of $25 for the best paper on the "Safety-First on Streets." This contest is open to children 12 years of age or over in Lowell, Chelmsford, Tewksbury, Billerica and Dracut. All papers are to be sent by mail to the Lowell office of the G.S.M.C. and must be received there by 12 o'clock noon, June 15th. Papers are to be written on one side only and must not be of more than 400 words. Judges will be appointed later.

CLOSED TIGHT

The Geo. E. Mongeau Shoe store is still closed and no further information can be secured than was given in The Sun yesterday. Both Mr. Mongeau and Mr. Bernier are away from the city today and the regular clerks at the store do not know what is doing. Mr. Johnson of the W. W. Johnson company, states that full particulars will be given to the press and will appear in tomorrow's papers.

BEAUTY IS HARMONY

There can be no harmony, and therefore no beauty, in a home in which the wife and mother is cross and irritable and dull-spirited. Often as not, disease is at the bottom of such a condition. Let the woman who is always tired and who suffers from low spirits and mysterious aches and pains, only try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She will then see that the beauty and harmony will be restored to her home with the return of her health and good spirits.—Adv.

MEMORIAL MASS

Members of the Woodbine Social and Athletic Association, Inc. attended the annual memorial mass of the organization celebrated Memorial day at 7:30 at the Immaculate Conception church. The entire membership and a number of friends marched in a body from the club rooms to the church and at the conclusion of the mass returned home.

TO THE ROOMS WHERE BREAKFAST WAS SERVED

Under the direction of John Barry, the roll of honor of the organization is as follows: John Farrell, Charles Farrell, George Brick, Raymond Chappell and Daniel Tuohy. The committee in charge of the arrangements for the mass included Jos. Jodoin, Charles Kenefick, Vincent Trainor, Charles Van Zant and John Barry.

EXPECT MANY VISITORS

Annual International Supreme Convention of San Francisco K. of C., Big Event

San Francisco Knights of Columbus are making elaborate preparations for the 39th annual international supreme convention of the order, to be held in San Francisco, Aug. 2, 3, 4. Numerous committees are busy at work planning for the accommodation and entertainment of the 20,000 visitors expected in that city for the supreme council and every detail is being carefully followed to make the coming convention the greatest and most successful in the history of the Knights of Columbus.

Four hundred and fifty delegates will attend the supreme convention, from all parts of the United States, Philippines, Alaska, Canada, Cuba, Porto Rico and Mexico, and we understand that hundreds of inquiries have already been received by the general committee at San Francisco, as to transportation rates, hotel accommodations, etc.

All transcontinental railroads will issue round trip tickets to San Francisco, for the convention, good for 30 days' stay-over if necessary, at one and one-third the one-way cost. A list of popular San Francisco hotels and their tariffs during supreme convention week is being published in the June issue of "The Columbian," but those desirous of securing further data or immediate information as to any accommodations or arrangements they wish to have made for them at San Francisco, will receive a prompt response by writing the chairman of the committee especially concerned.

The program for the supreme convention, as tentatively announced, is as follows:

Monday, Aug. 1—Arrival of visiting officers and delegates; all trains will be met by St. Francis assembly, fourth degree, the official reception committee for the supreme convention. Registration of visitors at supreme council headquarters, St. Francis hotel.

Tuesday, Aug. 2—Solemn Pontifical high mass, 10 a. m., at St. Mary's cathedral, Van Ness avenue and O'Farrell street. His Grace, Most Rev. Edward J. Hanna, D.D., archbishop of San Francisco, celebrant.

1 p. m. Opening business session of the supreme convention; Italian and Colonial ballrooms, St. Francis hotel.

7:30 p. m. Grand reception and ball, Civic auditorium. Addresses by Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, Mayor James Rolph, Jr., Gov. William D. Stephens, commanding officers for the Pacific division of United States army, and navy. Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty and other distinguished members of clergy and laity. Military band concert, dancing in two large ballrooms.

Wednesday, Aug. 3—10 a. m.—Business session of supreme council, at St. Francis hotel. 5 p. m.—Theatre party for visiting knights and ladies, as guests of the Knights of Columbus of California. 8 p. m.—Business session of supreme council, St. Francis hotel.

Thursday, Aug. 4—10 a. m.—Final business session of supreme council, St. Francis hotel. 1 p. m.—Excursion for visiting knights, delegates and ladies, to Mt. Tamalpais, over the crookedest railroad in the world, as guests of the Knights of Columbus of California.

During supreme convention week, open house will be maintained afternoons and evenings, at the clubhouses of San Francisco; Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Hayward councils in Alameda county; San Rafael council in Marin county; San Mateo and San Jose councils in California and San Francisco councils will hold entertainment, dancing every night of the convention, at their clubhouses.

Sightseeing tours over the beautiful city of San Francisco and magnificent surrounding country, will be a feature of the convention; a fleet of automobiles being at the disposal of the visiting knights and friends.

FEARFUL ORDERS FOR BIG CIRCUS CLOWNS

There's something new under the white tops this season. At least, there is with Sells-Floato circus—"second largest show on earth," coming to Lowell on Wednesday, June 8. Yes, siree! ## OPERA HOUSE

Lola Fisher, charming co-star with William Courtenay in Rol Cooper Sturges' clever comedy "Honors Are Even" coming to the Opera House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday has decided views on all matters pertaining to her profession. In fact, Miss Fisher is very well informed on all topics and talks intelligently on subjects quite foreign to her art. Miss Fisher is a young person with a brain and an urgent desire to use it. Discarding publicity as practiced in the present day and age, Miss Fisher expressed herself as follows:

"The idea of spreading broadcast in an actor or actress is very distasteful to me," said Miss Fisher. "The publicity that comes to one through intelligent criticism of one's work by the dramatic reviewer is an entirely different matter. That is the highest type of exploitation—helpful and constructive discussion of the artist's conception of a role—and is not only entertaining and instructive but is of great assistance to the actor. I believe, strongly, too, in the discriminating use of good photographs. But I think an actor or actress should be permitted to censor every picture used. I have seen such hideous pictures of my friends, dear, pretty sweet girls, and have felt it very unfair to give the public such an unflattering impression of their appearance. Wholesale advertising of the likes and dislikes of the actors, takes stories of jewel robberies, which thank heaven are now almost obsolete, rumored engagements to go out in the three rings and two stages and in the hippodrome track and be funny. Honestly, every one of the 55 has been told to be funny, and if he can't be funny, so each one has been instructed, he must not go out before all the people and mislead 'em with his stretched pantaloons and peaked caps. Those are the management's orders. Fact is, the orders read: 'Every clown with this show is hired to get laughs. Any clown not getting one or more laughs in each clown display will be fined $100 for the first offense, $200 for the second offense, and, for the third offense, he'll have his clown suit taken away from him for one performance. Offenses after that will be handled without mercy.'

And others of a like nature circulated at times by badly advised public directors, to no sound result, disillusioning and degrading. At least it only satisfies a morbid curiosity which should be discouraged. Then, too, the public, nowadays, is such a wise little bird—it wags its head knowingly and only believes what it feels like anyway—so why waste time?

There's a good advance sale already reported. The public should play to capacity audiences at each performance for it's a big production, with big stage stars, and put on in a big way. It'll support it. Lowell will have other big stage productions in the future. The test is being made.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Final performances of "The Idol of the North," starring capable Dorothy Dalton, will be given at the Merrimack Square theatre this evening. Tomorrow afternoon there will be an entire change of program.

The features for Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be "Don't Neglect Your Wife," Gertrude Abernethy's first original story for the screen, and "See My Lawyer," one of the funniest productions ever turned out. "Don't Neglect Your Wife" tells the story of a man's man who thought more of his club life and of his profession than of his duty to his young bride. The picture opens in the aristocratic circle of old San Francisco. Dr. Howard Talbot thought his bride had too much education and feared reading would spoil her looks. As he spent most of his time at his clubs, Madeline, left to her own resources, fell into an innocent friendship with a brilliant young newspaperman, and she, in the meantime, fell in love with each other. When they had discovered and acknowledged their love, they decided they must avoid each other in the future. But in the meantime, gossip had been busy weaving her slimy net about their friendship and the husband had seen and heard of his wife's flirting for young Masters' society at just the time they had discovered their love and decided they must repress it. Awake at last to his neglect, Dr. Talbot, blames himself. When they acknowledge the truth of his accusations, he believes he can yet save his wife and orders Masters not only never to see Madeline again but to leave San Francisco forever. Despite their protests at this death-blow to Masters' promising career, Dr. Talbot insists and Masters leaves. From then on the plot becomes even more absorbing and the denouement is most unusual.

"See My Lawyer" is a super-special comedy drama of a clean and entertaining type. It is bound to appeal to all who see it. A comedy and the International News will round out the bill.

N. F. KELTH'S THEATRE

Steno, Frisco, the genius of the xylophone, can work an audience up wonderfully, as is being shown at every performance at the N. F. Kelth theatre, this week. He plays about everything that is playable, whether classic or jazz, and does his work very well. Elsie Lange of Gilroy and Lang is a remarkably beautiful woman, and Will Mahoney, the new kind of comedian, achieves a knockout

WOOD-FORBES MISSION RETURNS TO MANILA

MANILA, May 30. (By the Associated Press.)—The mission composed of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood and W. Cameron Forbes which was sent to the Philippine Islands by President Harding to investigate conditions, returned to Manila today traveling 13 days by train, automobile, launch, horseback and steamer through the northern section of Luzon Island.

The mission held scores of public meetings and private conferences, listening to the views of the natives regarding independence for the Philippines, examining local financial affairs, sanitation, schools, public works, the administration of justice and agricultural conditions.

After visiting the central provinces of Luzon Island, the mission separated, then Wood traveled through the northern Pacific provinces, while Mr. Forbes went through the mountainous provinces among the non-Christian tribes. The commissioners united again on the west coast of Luzon.

Both commissioners said that their journeys everywhere had been marked by the friendliest feelings of the natives for Americans. At the public

SAT UP ALL ONE NIGHT WEIGHING THE QUESTION IN HER MIND, SHE SAYS

Miss Sadie Ladoux of 65 Tremont Street, Lowell, Took All Night To Decide Whether She Would Take CINTOT Or Give Up All Treatments—She Is Now Well

"I sat up one night because I was so discouraged about my health and decided that I would try CINTOT as a last resort and I am awfully glad I did," said Miss Ladoux.

"I was all run down and tired out and seemed to do every thing in a half-hearted way.

"I vomited after meals and had a bad taste in my mouth all the time and suffered dreadfully from gas on my stomach.

"Many a day I could hardly drag myself

self around and as the days passed by I kept getting worse and weaker and my blood was thin and watery.

"I have taken three bottles of CINTOT and today am in best of health and if no more could be had I would not take one hundred dollars for the bottle I have in my possession."

CINTOT is being demonstrated in Lowell by an expert at Dows Drug Store, Merrimack square and is for sale by Lowell Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

hearings they said, virtually all of the speakers among the Christian population favored independence for the island with a protectorate by the United States. Only a few speakers advocated complete separation, while occasionally speakers opposed independence in any form at present.

Many natives, especially property owners, told the commissioners in private conferences that they believed the present relations between the United States and the Philippines should continue indefinitely.

Leaders of the non-Christian tribes, comprising approximately 350,000 people in the mountainous provinces, expressed to the mission the warmest friendship for the United States and opposed independence.

Throughout the coast provinces while a desire for independence with a protectorate was strong, the people seemed more vitally concerned with obtaining communication with the outside world. The present means of transportation into that region, with its rich tobacco industry, is only by water and mountain trails.

Perhaps the most insistent appeal of all those made for immediate independence was expressed by speakers at public meetings in the central provinces of Tarlac and Pangasinan.

In a statement read at public meetings in the various provinces the commissioners emphasized that the mission had no authority to authorize independence and that the entire question was solely in the hands of congress and President Harding.

After spending a week in Manila to study the mass of data collected in the journey through the northern provinces, the mission will begin a trip through southern Luzon.

Judge Cox as Styles Censor

house or money to buy it. She said that a few months after marriage she was compelled to go to work to support herself, and that later she consulted a doctor who told her that if she did not stop working she would have a nervous breakdown.

Sick For Three Months

When she told her husband of the doctor's statement, witness said, he told her he did not care if she did break down; that she would have to support herself. Later, she said, she was sick for three months.

A decree was entered in the case after a default had been entered. Edward J. Tierney appeared as counsel for the libellant.

An echo of New York's famous Stillman case, that has aroused interest from one side of the continent to the other, crept into the court today when Joseph Egnacio DeSousa of Somerville, seeking a severing of the marriage ties binding him to Mary Elizabeth DeSousa, denied on the witness stand that he is the father of one of four children named in the divorce petition. The child, whose parentage is questioned, is a young boy.

Warned by Father-in-Law

The libellant, seeking a divorce on statutory grounds, testified that, after having been warned by his father-in-law that he would be well for him to keep a watchful eye on his wife, he went to his home, in company with a brother-in-law and a police officer, about 1 o'clock in the morning of January 1, 1920, and found conditions there such that his wife and a male companion were arrested.

When the witness was asked by Judge Cox if he wanted the custody of his four children he replied:

"In one way I want them and another I don't; it is pretty hard to support four children."

"Who should support them, if you do not?" inquired the judge.

"My wife makes good money; she should support some of them," was the answer.

"I don't like to hear you say you will not support your children," continued Judge Cox. "Are you a citizen of the United States?"

"Yes."

"Then you will support your children if you get any relief from me here," the judge asserted emphatically.

Didn't Want Boy

"But I don't want the boy; he is not mine," protested the witness.

"Who do you think will take care of your children, if you do not?" asked the judge.

"I understand that the mother wants one or two of them."

"If you think she is not fit to live with, do you think she is a fit person to have control of your children?" was the next interrogation of the judge.

The judge brushed aside the mooted question of the paternity of the young boy by calling attention to the fact that he had been named in the petition for divorce and his parentage thereby acknowledged.

In granting a divorce decree, Judge Cox cautioned the libellant that if he did not support his children "the police would get him."

Argument Over Life Insurance

Ramona O. Pearson of Malden, a comely blonde attractive woman in her thirties with a light green tongue, seeking a divorce from Herbert W. Pearson, said that the first serious trouble she had with her husband was at the home of her mother in Melrose on Thanksgiving day, 1911. She asserted that she had an argument with her husband over a life insurance policy. She said that her husband expressed the opinion that he did not think any man should be foolish enough to carry life insurance for the benefit of some other man; and that when she refused to "sign-off" her interest under the policy he doubled up his fist and struck her.

The witness testified that he had boasted of his conquests with other women, and that she found compromising letters from his feminine correspondents and that when she refused to give them up her husband struck her several times. She testified that in all her husband had struck her at least 25 times during her married life. She testified that she is employed as a clerical worker in West street, Boston, and that her pay is slightly in excess of $100 a month. When questioned by Judge Cox regarding her ability to make both ends meet out of her income, without assistance from her husband, who, she asserted is earning $75 a week, the witness gave details of bills she owes a doctor and lawyers, and said that she was indebted on charge accounts in Boston department stores for about $150.

"You are some extravagant," commented the judge.

"Just a bit," admitted the witness, smiling sweetly, in response.

A decree was granted with the stipulation that further relief may be sought later in the way of alimony.

In the case of Jennie M. Green, on the ground of desertion and cruel and abusive treatment, the libellant testified that her husband had pinched her until she was black and blue. The libellant's mother told of seeing bruises on her daughter's arms and that at the time she was in a condition bordering on hysteria. A decree was granted after a default had been recorded.

BOYS' VOCATIONAL SCHOOL FIELD DAY

The annual field day of the students of the Boys' Vocational school will be held Friday, June 3, at the Genoa club grounds in Tyngsboro and an excellent program of sporting events and entertainment has been arranged for the occasion under the direction of Principal Thomas F. Fisher.

The outing and field day will be an all-day affair, the students leaving for the grounds early in the morning. They will bring their own lunches and the faculty will furnish ice cream and tonic.

A feature of the sporting program will be a baseball game for the school championship between the machine shop and the automobile repair department.

Tomorrow afternoon the Vocational school line will meet the Continuation school on the North main street.

Tuesday the Vocational school boys will play Westford and a week from tomorrow there will be a game with a nine from Wilmington.

WANT OFFICE IN MERRIMACK SQUARE

An office will be hired by the United States naval authorities in Merrimack square, and unlimited recruiting for Uncle Sam's sea forces is expected to start here July 1. This was learned today when a high official from the district headquarters of the recruiting service, in Boston, visited this city and viewed several possible sites for a sub-station in this city.

light near the negro quarter of Tulsa, the scene of all night race disturbances in which hundreds of armed white men and negroes took part and which resulted in the death and injury of an unknown number of persons and the calling out of Oklahoma national guard units.

The firing came from a spot where 500 white men and a thousand negroes fed each other across railroad tracks. First reports to police headquarters said that the bodies of from six to ten negroes could be seen lying in a space described as "No Man's Land." The police also had a report that three railway switchmen and a brakeman had been shot to death.

The trainmen were killed, it is reported, because they refused to permit members of the opposing crowds to ride upon a switch engine passing between the lines. The engineer was reported to have escaped.

coming of dawn the trouble, which began over the arrest of a negro late yesterday for an attack upon a white girl, would die out. On the contrary, however, the early morning gunfire was taken as an indication that the riots had been renewed.

About 7 o'clock last night, automobiles filled with armed negroes, appeared on the principal streets, headed for the courthouse. The jail in which the negro was confined is located on the upper story of the courthouse.

Shortly after the jail had been surrounded by 200 negroes, several armed white men appeared and soon the streets were lined with crowds.

The first known firing came shortly after dark when a negro was stopped by a police officer, and his gun was taken away. He attempted to resist.

According to the officer, and was shot dead. Three hours later his body was dead in the neighborhood of 15. Officials were uncertain as to the number injured.

White Woman Shot

Dick Howland, the negro charged with assault, was removed from the county jail during the night to a place of safety unrecalled.

In a fresh outbreak at 7.30 o'clock in the Standpipe Hill district in the extreme northern end of the negro quarter, Mrs. S. A. Gilmore, a white woman, was shot in the left arm and side. She was standing on the front porch of her home when she was shot by a negro, one of a score or more barricaded in a church.

Hundreds of armed white men rushed to the district in automobiles.

WOULD RECALL HARVEY COX TO IGNORE APPEAL

Sen. McKellar Declares Pres. Harding's Remarks Re-buked Ambassador

WASHINGTON, June 1.—President Harding's utterances at Pohick, Va., Sunday, and his Memorial day address were interpreted in the senate yesterday by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, as a "rebuke" to Ambassador Harvey for his address at the Pilgrim society dinner in London yesterday.

"Knowing what he termed a 'deadly parallel' of the remarks of the president and Mr. Harvey, Senator McKellar asked that they be printed in the Congressional Record to show the contrast," he also urged that Mr. Harvey be recalled.

He declared that portions of the Harvey speech constituted a libel on the American government and every patriotic citizen.

The president's words always are of greatest importance, he added, but he believed they had especial force and power in pointing out the falsehood, making clear the desertion and in repudiating and rebuking the libel committed by Mr. Harvey.

"I hope the president will go farther," continued the senator. "I hope that he will take steps to right the wrong that Mr. Harvey has perpetrated upon the American people. I hope he will recall him from his post. After the publication of these false statements about his own country, Mr. Harvey ought not be permitted to represent our people at the British court. It is a shame to America to be represented abroad by a man who thus expresses his contempt for his own nation and its soldiers."

HARVEY TO ATTEND COUNCIL MEETING

LONDON, June 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Ambassador Harvey told the American correspondents yesterday that he expected to attend the forthcoming meeting of the supreme council in Boulogne, but he could not indicate whether he would take part in the deliberations or sit merely as an observer.

He took occasion to dispel the idea that had been expressed in some of the London newspapers that because of his close personal relations with President Harding he might depart from strict diplomatic usage and voice his personal opinions with relation to international questions.

He declined to express an opinion as to what the American attitude would be in the matter of assisting in the execution of the League of Nations plan for the economic rehabilitation of Austria, and other issues involving the league.

He said nothing had been officially brought to his attention with reference to an alleged diversion of Irish White Cross funds for the purchase of American ammunition found in Ireland.

The wedding cake is a survival of the old Roman custom of baking wheat or barley loaf to signify marriage.

Boston Police Strikers Asked Reinstatement—Repented in Sack Cloth and Ashes

BOSTON, June 1.—Gov. Cox last night asserted that he did not believe he would "pay any attention" to the letter addressed to him yesterday asking reinstatement of the Boston policemen who left the force on strike in September, 1919. The letter was signed by Michael Lynch, as president of the Boston Social club, which was the fraternal organization of the former police force.

"In view of the fact that the letter was apparently sent to the newspapers' first," the governor said, "and in view of the condition that it is in, I do not believe that I will pay attention to it."

The communication asserted that the former policemen had "repented in sack cloth and ashes," adding that they had paid and suffered "for their indiscretion as no other body of men have ever been called upon to suffer for like action in the history of the country."

RAIN AIDS FOREST FIRE FIGHTERS

HOULTON, Me., June 1.—Heavy rain last night came to the aid of hundreds of forest fire fighters in Aroostook county. The progress of the flames was checked and at a late hour it was believed that the three separate fires which had burned over 15 square miles, destroying much valuable timber, were under control. They were being fought by crews of men numbering several hundred but the ground was so dry that the fires ran under the trenches dug to prevent their spreading.

In Township 15, Range 4, one mile south of Winthrop lake in northern Aroostook, there is a fire in the timberlands of James C. Madigan of Houlton and the American Realty Co. Another fire to the south is on the property of the Great Northern Paper Co. In Township 17, Range 3, while the third is in Township 3, Range 4, on lands of the Great Northern Paper Co. and the Pnobsat Development Co.

The last two fires were menacing the camps of James T. Darling of Houlton, Clarence Stiles of Westbrook, and Frank Daggett of Bangor.

FRANCE MOURNS CHIEF JUSTICE

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The sympathy of France for the widow of Chief Justice White was expressed to her yesterday by Ambassador Jusserand, in accordance with instructions received by him from his government, in which he declared that France mourns Chief Justice White as a friend whose sympathy during all the years of the war was appreciated.

The letter to Mrs. White from M. Jusserand reads as follows: "Dear Mrs. White: Not in my name today, but in that of my government. I come to express to you the deep regret with which they learned of the great loss suffered by you and by this country, by all those indeed able to appreciate the splendid combination of qualities and virtues which made of the chief justice such an admirable man."

"A cable received by me this morning instructs me to say to you, that France mourns with America, having lost in Edward Douglass White a friend whose sympathy during all the years of the war was deeply appreciated by all of us and, given what he was confirmed in our faith as to the justice of our cause."

PASTOR GREETED AT A RECEPTION

Rev. J. Field Speer and family were greeted by nearly 175 members of the congregation of the Westminster Presbyterian church at a reception in the church last night. Mr. Speer has recently been installed pastor of the church. The reception was in charge of committees representing the Minute Men and Ladies Aid society of the church.

In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Speer were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Blackie and Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Achison of Lawrence.

After the reception short addresses were made by several speakers introduced by John D. McKinley. Those who spoke were Rev. J. M. Craig, pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Joseph E. Kennedy, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Dr. T. E. Achison, head of the presbytery which includes Lowell churches, and Rev. J. F. Speer.

Winter arrangements protected by the shipping board, American mariners are to receive storm warnings by wireless from all parts of the world. Many vessels on the seas are without radio equipment and in these cases the warnings are to be passed on from ships receiving them by other means when such vessels are encountered.

Man Carrying Bomb Arrested

MEXICO CITY, June 1.—Three persons disguised as beggars, one of whom was said to be carrying a dynamite bomb, were arrested last night in the village of Guadalupe, near here, charged with attempting to break up religious services being held in the cathedral under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. They were released upon orders from Celestino Gasca, governor of the federal district who declared there was no evidence against them. As they left the prison, however, they were stoned by crowds. The men are all alleged to be Bolshevik leaders.

$25,000,000 Bridge at San Francisco Bay

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—A bridge across San Francisco bay will be constructed at a cost of $25,000,000, according to an announcement today by A. J. Rich, a local financier, who declared the money for the project had been subscribed. Engineers' plans have been completed and the terminals have been selected. The structure will extend direct from San Francisco to the Alameda county shore line. The bridge will be eight and one-eighth miles long and 200 feet wide and will provide for traffic of all kinds.

Germany Protests French Franc in Saar

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Germany has addressed a note of protest to the League of Nations against the establishment of the French franc instead of the German mark, as the official currency in the Saar district which is under the administration of the league, according to advices received here today in official circles. The protest is understood to have been based on the charge that the order constituted a fundamental and illegal alteration of the treaty of Versailles.

Fighting Follows Raid Near Dublin

DUBLIN, June 1.—Armed men made an attack upon the residence of the Honorable Edward Donoghue O'Brien, at Roslevan, Ennis, yesterday and in the fighting that ensued, one person was wounded. A tennis game was in progress when 40 men suddenly appeared, shouting: "Hands up." They commenced firing, some bullets entering the luncheon tent on the grounds, where W. H. Ball was sitting. He was wounded. A motor car was stolen and another was burned during the raid. Several women fainted.

Columbia Crew Off For Poughkeepsie

NEW YORK, June 1.—The Columbia university rowing squad, headed by Coach Jim Rice, left this morning for Poughkeepsie to complete training for the intercollegiate regatta June 22. First and second varsity and freshman oarsmen were included in the squad. The Columbia oarsmen are the first of the intercollegiate regatta entrants to settle in the Poughkeepsie training quarters.

British Forces May Quit Mesopotamia

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Situation of the British forces in Mesopotamia was reported today in official circles to be increasingly unstable. It was represented that the British are faced with the necessity of either withdrawing from the country or of adding reserves to the forces already there. One plan under consideration is a withdrawal to Basra and the organization of an Arab state there under Emir Feisal.

CUT DEFICIENCY BILL

$150,000 for Boston Quarantine Station Wiped Out—

Other Items Eliminated

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Exasperated by the huge deficiency appropriation

asked by the government departments, leaders in the senate appropriations committee have determined to put an end to such expenditures.

Heads of departments or bureaus who heretofore secured their authority by ordering expenditures exceeding appropriations approved by congress may find themselves summarily dismissed from the service, fined or put in prison.

The committee reported the second deficiency appropriation bill, to the senate yesterday, after eliminating a number of items, including $150,000 contained in the house bill for the quarantine station in Boston. The committee also separated the actual deficiency items from the so-called "emergency items," of which there are a large number in the bill.

A forgotten statute, passed more than 15 years ago, which makes it a penal offense for executive officers to obligate the government for deficiencies not authorized when congress makes the appropriations for the fiscal year, will be revived, it is said, by senate leaders.

This statute reads:

"No executive department or other government establishment shall expend in any fiscal year in excess of appropriations made by congress for that fiscal year, or involve the government in any contract or other obligation for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriation, unless such contract or obligation is authorized by law."

"Any person violating any provision of this law shall be summarily removed from office and may also be punished by a fine of not less than $100, or by imprisonment for not less than one month."

Members of the senate say that this law has been ignored for many years, and they blame the executive departments for this. The statute does permit, however, expenditures for "unforeseen emergencies" under certain restrictions. This is the loophole, they say, that has paved the way for excessive expenditures.

Elvita Pills have stood the test for over 30 years. Originated 1891. Thousands praise them for perfect development and health by strengthening the system and purifying and building up the blood. Thin blood during the growing years of a girl's life usually means a flat-chested and hollow-cheeked womanhood. There can be neither health nor beauty without red blood which gives brightness to the eyes and color to cheeks and lips.

PAPER MILLS CLOSED UNTIL TROOPS ARRIVE

GREEN BAY, Wis., June 1.—All employees at the Northern Paper mills have been withdrawn and the machines have been shut down pending the arrival of state troops asked by the sheriff.

Judson G. Rosebush, general manager, escorted a committee of strikers through the mills to convince them that work would not be continued by strike-breakers.

Under police protection, scores of employees were taken in boats down the river to a landing close to the business district and under heavy guard driven to the courthouse, where they were paid off and left for their homes or for other cities.

Police have under arrest a man believed responsible for the wounding of two pickets.

A company official declared that the mill would reopen just as soon as adequate protection was given by the state or local authorities.

CARD OF THANKS

The Sisters of Notre Dame wish to express their thanks to their kind friends who gave their machines yesterday to convey sisters and children to and from Tyngsboro at the children's picnic.

LOWELL MEN HONORED

David Hackett State President
of Eagles—G. A. Kennedy
and J. M. Hogan Named

NORTH ADAMS, June 1.—With the election and installation of officers and the passage of a resolution in favor of an old-age pension bill, the annual convention of the State Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, closed yesterday afternoon. Revere was named as the next convention city. Following are the officers chosen:

Junior past state president, Joseph P. Coy, Pittsfield; president, David J. Hackett, Lowell; vice president, Edward F. Delaney, New Bedford; secretary, Michael L. Foley, Pittsfield; treasurer, William J. Murphy, Fall River; chaplain, William J. Mackey, North Adams; inside guard, George A. Kennedy, Lowell; outside guard, John McQuillan, Lynn; conductor, John M. Hogan, Lowell; trustee, John W. Lawless, Salem.

Following the election of these officers they were installed in their respective offices by Grand Worthy President Elbert D. Wood of Oskosh, Wis. Thomas D. Murphy of Boston, deputy organizer, spoke in behalf of the old-age pension bill. The resolution was as follows:

DAVID J. HACKETT
President

"Whereas, modern industry, with its intricate, swiftly moving machinery and rush of production requires the steady nerve, ready initiative and exhaustless energy of youth and places the elderly workman at a serious disadvantage even if he does not debar him from employment; and

"Whereas experience has proved that the remuneration received during his productive years is, in many cases, through no fault of his own, utterly inadequate to enable the workman to lay by sufficient to provide for the non-productive years of later life—statistics showing that in the United States alone there are 1,250,000 such old-age dependents on public and private charity; and

"Whereas, such charity with its brand of pauperism inflicts an unjust stigma upon these unfortunate victims of our industrial system who have expended the energy of their vigorous years in production for the benefit of society; and

"Whereas, the pension is not a form of charity, but an honorable recognition of hitherto not fully rewarded service; and

"Whereas, among civilized nations, the United States is the only prominent one that has not in some form or other recognized the obligation of the state to the humble toilers whose labors are the basis of its prosperity; and

"Whereas, the Fraternal Order of Eagles is particularly interested in this question, not only because of the economic status of a large portion of its membership, but also because of its fundamental principle of upholding justice; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Massachusetts State Aerie of Eagles, that we are in favor of governmental old-age pensions, and that we invite our sister state aeries and the subordinate aeries of the order to unite with us in requesting the grand aerie of 1921 to take such action as will awaken public sentiment to the wisdom of state and federal provision that all remove from the minds of the laborers of the land the haunting fear of want and pauperism in old age."

David J. Hackett is a past worthy president of the Lowell aerie of Eagles and came all the way from Cleveland, O. Mr. Hackett has been on the road for the national convention committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles for several weeks past, ex-

Almost a Physical Wreck Ruff
Builds Himself Back to Vigorous Health

"I had heard a great deal about Tanlac and since trying it myself I can conscientiously say it is the best medicine I have ever seen in all my experience," said David Ruff, 250 N. 55th st., Philadelphia, recently. Mr. Ruff has lived in Philadelphia all his life and is well known and highly respected.

DAVID RUFF
250 N. 55th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"My health was all broken up," he explained. "My stomach was all out of order and gave me so much trouble that I actually dreaded to go to the table. I would simply rather go without eating than suffer the awful misery I knew would follow. I would blot up so with gas that my heart would beat a terrific rate and it seemed sometimes I was being smothered to death. I just had to fight for my breath. My nerves were all undone. I slept poorly and was all the time having headaches that were almost blinding. I lost weight and felt so weak and run down all over I could hardly do any work."

"Sometime ago a good friend of mine told me he knew Tanlac would help me and he spoke so positive about it that I took his advice. And I can say right now that Tanlac is the first medicine I ever saw that will do exactly what they say it will. Five bottles have the same as made me all over again. I can eat anything I ever could in my life and have gained 15 pounds in weight. I'm no more nervous than a child, sleep fine and it just makes me feel happy to be enjoying such good health. Tanlac certainly is a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Green's drug store under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative, by Wright Drug Co., Billerica, Mass.; Shaw's Pharmacy, Concord, Mass.; and by the leading druggist in every town.

plaining to the members of the various series the benefits to be derived in sending delegates to the national convention, which will be held at Newark, N. J. August 8 to 13 inclusive. He left Lowell on his last trip May 2 and visited aeries at Atlantic City, New York, Columbia and Harborside, Tenn., Dayton, O., Covington, Ky., Indianapolis, Ind., Denver, Colo., Muncie, Ind., Norwood, Cincinnati and Cleveland, Ohio. He will spend a few days at his home in this city and will leave again, expecting this time to go clean through to the Pacific coast.

The Lowell delegates who attended the North Adams convention were John M. Hogan, Martin J. Crowe, Cornelius T. O'Rourke and George W. Carey. The state aerie is composed of representative of 57 aeries with a membership of 75,000. There were 250 delegates at the convention.

Cut Wages $400,000,000

other roads would cause the same reductions to be placed in effect on those lines. The decreases, it is estimated, eventually will affect two million men. The general average decrease is placed at 12 per cent. as compared with an average of 21 per cent. increase granted last July.

Union leaders withheld comment on the board's decision, but it was freely stated at sessions of the railway employees' leaders here during the board's hearings on the decreases that cuts of 10 to 12 per cent. would meet little opposition.

Leaders of the four big brotherhoods have called a meeting here for July 1, when the wage decreases are effective, to discuss the award.

H. E. Byram, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and S. M. Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western declared that the reductions were "not sufficient to meet the demands of the situation."

In a supplemental memorandum the board points out that during government control the wages of railway employees were increased from an average of $15 a month in December, 1917, to $116 in January, 1920, and to $111 by the increase of last July. About 10 per cent. of the employees, chiefly those unskilled, the board said, had thus received increases approximating 100 per cent., while the average increase over the pay prior to federal control was 51 per cent.

The board estimates that the present cut would mean "an average monthly salary of about $125 for all employees, but such an average means of course that, while some workers would earn a sum considerably in excess of this, many thousands would fall far short of that figure."

The board estimates that the present cut would mean "an average monthly salary of about $125 for all employees, but such an average means of course that, while some workers would earn a sum considerably in excess of this, many thousands would fall far short of that figure."

Wipes Out Increase of 1920

The decision grants reductions varying from 5 to 13 cents an hour, or from 5 to 18 per cent., and in the case of section laborers, completely wipes out the increase granted that class of employees by the $400,000,000 wage award of July 20, 1920.

For section men the reduction was approximately 15 per cent. Switchmen and shop crafts were given a 9 per cent. reduction, while the train service men were cut approximately 7 per cent. Car repairers were cut about 10 per cent.

Common labor pay, over which the railroads made their hardest fight, is to be reduced 6 to 8 1/2 cents an hour, cutting freight truckers' average monthly wages to $7.10 and track laborers to $7.11.

This new schedule gives section men an average daily wage of $3.02 for

To Report Peace Resolution

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The house foreign affairs committee will meet Friday to report a peace resolution, but it is not expected to reach the house in time for consideration this week. Republican members of the committee already have agreed, it is said to report the Porter resolution, which merely provides for a termination of war, in place of the Knox resolution, passed by the senate, repealing the declaration of war. Democrats have indicated that they will oppose the peace measure, regardless of the form in which it is presented.

New Hair Growth
After BALDNESS

On legal affidavit, John Hart Brittain, business man, certified to this: "My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. An expert said that he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth."

"Yet now, at an age over 66, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair! No trace of baldness. See pictures shown here are from my photograph."

INDIANS' SECRET OF HAIR GROWTH

Mr. Brittain certified further: "At a time when I had become discouraged at trying to grow my hair again, I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian medicine man who had an elixir that he asserted would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as profuse as in my youthful days."

True Hair Grower at Last

"That I was astonished and happy is expressing my state of mind. I was bald, bald, bald. Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant. In the scalp, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the then mysterious elixir. I negotiated for and came into possession of the principle for preparing this, now called KOTALKO, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist. That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved."

Carpentier's "Fattening Up" Plan Wrong, Says Kilbane

JOHNNY KILBANE, Featherweight Champion

Descamps, they say, is going to "build up" Carpentier so that the challenger can enter the ring against Jack Dempsey on July 2. Weighing something more than 140 pounds and not so far below the weight of the champion.

If Descamps really is serious in these announcements, he is making a grave mistake and one that will react against Georges in the battle.

Never in the history of ringdom has a boxer "built himself up" into good shape for a fight. In order to go through this building-up process Carpentier will have to eat and drink, and this will form fats. True, some of this fat will turn to muscle, but the majority of it will not, and the entire additional fat and muscle will be in his stomach, where it does far more harm than good.

A fighter can't build up his chest or his arms or his legs in a few weeks. And these are the only places where a building-up process would aid him materially in a battle.

You never heard of a trainer fattening up a horse for a race, did you? Building up a boxer is the same idea, exactly.

Dempsey is overweight. He'll be able to lose the surplus fat that is thrown on with his final training, easily, and ought to be in ideal fighting shape at the time for the bout.

But my hope is that if Carpentier really undertakes this building up or "fattening up" work, he'll be slowed up to a great extent when he goes into the ring.

JACK KNOCKS OUT GEORGES!

Jack swung—and a mighty right landed squarely on Georges Carpentier's jaw. Georges went down for the count. That was when Jackie Coogan, the little movie hero in "Peck's Bad Boy," visited Carpentier's training camp on Long Island.

Dempsey "Targets" Don Headgear at Exhibitions

Jack Dempsey's training methods are hard on his sparring partners. He hits hard and often. So they're taking to headgear, such as Jack Renault, Montreal heavyweight, is wearing as he faces Dempsey in this picture. Big picture shows Dempsey's first exhibition workout, in the huge stadium he built at Atlantic City to make money while training by charging admission.

Dog Will "Fly" in Biggest Air Derby

LT. JAS. T. HUTCHINSON, HIS PLANE AND HIS MASCOT, "SHANTY"

DETROIT, June 1.—"Shanty," an air-dale dog, will "fly" in the world's greatest air derby which will be held here Sept. 3, 5, 10.

"Shanty" is the mascot of Lieut. Jas. T. Hutchinson, commanding officer of the U. S. air service detachment at Selfridge field, the first Detroit birdman to enter the race.

The dog flies everywhere with his master.

"He is crazy about flying," says Lt. Hutchinson.

"I seldom make a flight without him tucked away in the tonneau of the plane."

"He doesn't have to be helped into the plane. He jumps in himself."

"I think he brings me luck. That's why I'm going to have 'Shanty' with me in the air derby. We will do our training together."

The Detroit air meet was originally planned with the Pulitzer cup as the trophy.

Since then the flying meet has been broadened to include the contest for the Detroit Aviation country club trophy, the Liberty Engine Builders' trophy, the Detroit News aerial and mail trophy and $10,000 in added prizes.

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, noted American ace, is chairman of the starters' committee. Also Capt. C. C. Messersmith, U. S. army, who won the initial contest for the Pulitzer cup, will be on the starting committee.

Lieut. Maynard, the "flying parson," who won the Toronto-New York transcontinental flights, is expected to compete. The races will approximate 264 miles. Pilots will circle a 55-mile course four times.

John Bull would soon get chesky if Golf was the only game—But we can think of several sports at which he pulls up lame.

JACK DEMPSEY IS POPULAR WITH "KIDS" Gillespies Go Down Before C.M.A.C. In Twilight League Series By Score of 8 to 6

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 1.—If Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, has any weakness, it is an affection for the "kids"—ragged, dirty-faced or dressed up. Dempsey today cherishes letters he has received from children whose homes are scattered all over the country wishing him success in his championship match with Georges Carpentier in Jersey City July 2. The little holder receives hundreds of letters daily from all corners all over the world, but the missives he reads and saves come from children written in the typical handwriting of a child, big, bold letters, with about a dozen words laboriously scrawled to a page.

Dempsey will celebrate his 26th birthday on June 23, and may have a birthday party for the "kids" as his guests, as he did at Toledo two years ago when he was training for his contest with Jess Willard. He has taken a keen interest in youngsters under treatment for tuberculosis at the home at the Children's Seashore House of this city and may put on a birthday party for them.

The champion entered on the second day of his four day layoff. He was away from his camp a good share of the day yesterday, driving over to Camden, N. J., 50 miles distant.

To Remove Barbed Wire
MANHASSET, N. Y., June 1.—Barbed wire, when connected with trousers, has been declared undesirable by Georges Carpentier and the cutangere about his training camp, placed there to keep curious visitors away, will be removed, Manager Descamps announced today.

JACK DEMPSEY BEATEN
BY MAX RATHASAR
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 1.—Wrestler!

Champion Jack Dempsey defeated! One hundred and fifty-pound correspondent scores sensational victory!

Next day the layout was brought along and in a few moments the history-making battle was on.

The head lines are suggested by Horton Bailey as appropriate heads for the following: "Dempsey's heavyweight championship of the world and the perpetrator of these few well chosen words."

"Do you play cribbage?" he was asked.

"Some," he replied in a lordly, high-toned and superior way.

Round One
Dempsey wins the toss for corners and deals. We score heavily and win the first exchange by nine points, thereby "stealing" the champion's "crib," which in plain English means that Dempsey, with two hands, was unable to equal the score of his opponent's one hand. The pup knocked the champion dizzy and for the balance of the round he was all at sea. He committed two fouls, one on the "crib" and the other on the "crib" and the other on the "crib."

Round Two
This one was a riot. The champion, angered by the beating he had received in the opening spasm, tried to get his opponent's "crib" by ralling him a ponzonous slobber and a fumbled shot, but his efforts along these lines were of no avail. He ridged along nicely and scoring "sawdust" which means that Dempsey had failed to turn the last post on the way home before his opponent had finished the game.

Round Three
When the bell rang for round three Dempsey's seconds tossed in the sponge.

HARVARD VARSITY CREW
CAMBRIDGE, June 1.—The sailing of the Harvard varsity crew, which meets Yale on the Thames on June 21, will be the same as in the Cornell race last Saturday, when the Crimson oarsmen were defeated by three lengths. Coach Hakes in announcing the makeup of the crew said that four substitutes—Duncan, Witherington, Rundhart and Nickerson—would accompany the Junior and Varsity eights, when they leave here Sunday for the Top, Conn., where the finishing touches for the brush with Guy Nickalls' combinations will be made.

The Gillespies didn't show championship form in their game with the C.M.A.C. in the Twilight League series on the South common last evening and as a result last year's league leaders went down in defeat, 8 to 6, in a free hitting and errorful contest.

The champs had an opportunity to come through and at least tie the score in the sixth inning when they got three men on the bags, but the old wallop was lacking and Charlie Bird was forced to trot his charges off the field under the yoke of defeat.

It was a fairly well played game until the fourth inning when the Gillespies seemed to lose all control in the field and allowed five tallies to count before they came to this game. The C.M.A.C. a substantial lead but the washing machine men came back strong in their turn at bat, evening matters by sending across four runs.

Sam Pouliot was on the mound for the Gillespies but wasn't up to his usual form. Overwork may be telling on Samuel for he is bearing the burden of the Gillespies' home work alone. Charlie Donahue started in for the C.M.A.C. but when the Gillespies began getting to him freely, Conlon was warmed up and sent in to finish the game. He pitched good ball.

The first inning brought a run to each side and then things were quiet until the last of the third when the Gillespies forged ahead by one run. Boudreau hit Allen at third base and made first. A poor throw sent him to second. McIntyre grounded to Reynolds and the latter threw to Merritt at the plate to head off Boudreau.

The runner turned back to third when he saw he was caught and Merritt pegged to Allen to get him. The latter Merritt was thereupon taken out of the game but the C.M.A.C. manager, in taking this step because the error was that of the third baseman who tried to tag the runner before he got the ball, Merritt's peg was all that could be desired.

The fourth inning brought an avalanche of runs on both sides and when the smoke of battle had cleared the teams each had six runs to its credit. In the fifth the C.M.A.C. won the game when they scored two runs on a couple of hits and a brace tally to come in.

There was little doing in the second half and the C.M.A.C. was retired in order in the sixth, but in the second half of the sixth the Gillespies got three men on and it looked like a tie game. The necessary hit was lacking, however, and the game went to the C.M.A.C. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME
Broadways and Highland Daylights tonight at 8 o'clock.

The crowd was bigger than ever, the fans not only covering the first base slope but a goodly portion of the grass on the opposite side of the field.

Billie Merritt, who started catching for the C.M.A.C., should never have been yanked. The overthrow charged to him was really Allen's error.

Charlie Bird played short instead of behind the bat and with the exception of one poor peg to first, he had all the earmarks of a Wagner.

Charles Donahue is going to develop into a sweet twister if he gets the proper training, but no pitcher can win a game unless he is given support in the field.

HEADS TECH TRACK TEAM
BOSTON, June 1.—C. G. Dandrow has been elected captain of the track team of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. First place in the hammer throw has been won by Dandrow in every meet in which Tech has competed this year, his win in the intercollegiate last Saturday scoring half of Tech's 10 points.

Brewers Slump! Mascot Ill

WILLIE SMITH, MASCOT OF THE MILWAUKEE CLUB, WHO IS NOW IN THE HOSPITAL BATTLING WITH SCARLET FEVER

MILWAUKEE, June 1.—A cloud hangs over the Milwaukee ball team. Wee Willie Smith, the club's freckle-faced mascot, is ill in a hospital here with scarlet fever.

The day Willie was sent to the hospital the Brewers went into a slump. Every player on the team as well as all Milwaukee fans believe the team's losing streak is due to the absence of the little boy who once racked the bats and put his good luck magic into them.

Willie sells papers in addition to taking care of his important job at the ball park when well.

During the recent cold weather Willie took care of his duties as a mascot and being scantily clad caught a cold which later developed into fever. The fans were so interested in the team they forgot that Willie was about the most important member of the ball club or that he wasn't properly dressed. They're making up for it now. Every day fresh cut flowers are sent to Willie's sick room.

And when he gets back on the job at the park he'll find a brand new uniform waiting for him.

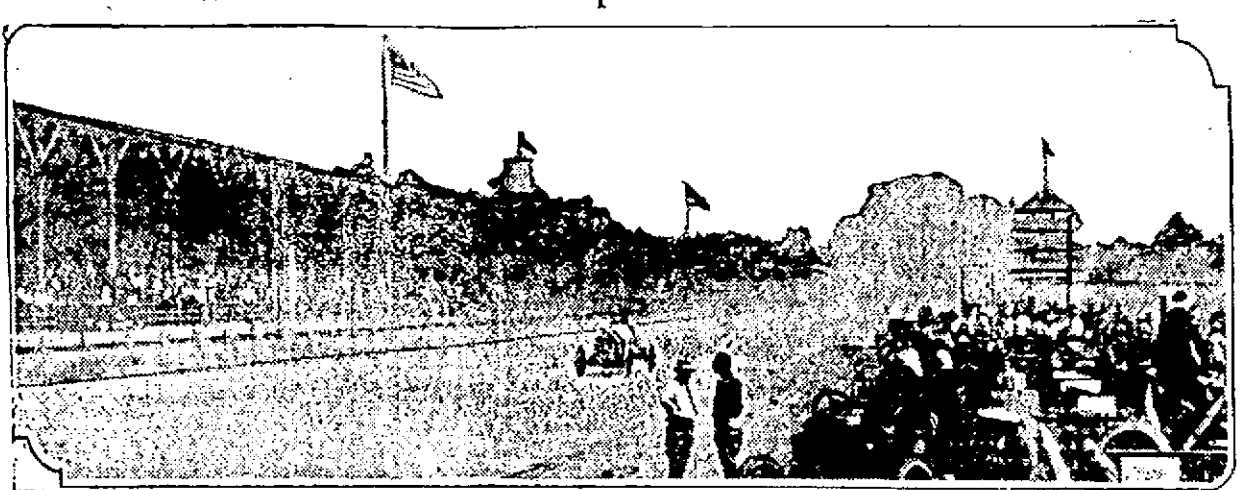

The fans got it for him and handed it over to Manager Egan.

Many ball clubs are dependent upon lucky mascots. But they don't realize it until something happens to them and the team starts losing.

About 25 out of 100 ball players are superstitious. And they all believe the kid who keeps their bats lined up in front of the dugout has a lot to do with their hitting eyes.

So when Willie gets back from the hospital the Brewers are going to be mighty careful with Willie so he can keep well and win more games for them.

CANAL POOR PLACE FOR BIGGEST GAME OF YEAR

FANCY DIVING FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Attempting an exhibition of fancy diving last evening in the Pawtucket canal, Miss Willard, connected with the California shows, now playing at Washington park, was held below the surface by the powerful undertow and after an under-water battle was saved by "Mud-Guard" Farrell, a trick motor-cyclist. When Miss Willard came to the surface she was scarcely able to keep afloat, and, gasping, had been her struggle with the current. Farrell hurriedly kicked off his shoes and dove to her rescue. No serious injuries were feared by the young woman, who will start her regular diving exhibitions tomorrow. Farrell proceeded to the armory, where he was given dry clothes by Capt. MacBrayne of Battery B, which is running the show.

LITTLE PRINCE AT COMBINATION PARK

"Little Prince," Tom Braden's classic nacer, was shipped to Combination park today to prepare for the races. The Lowell favorite will race there on June 17, and will be piloted by Oscar Dowel who conducted an exceptionally successful campaign with Little Prince last year. Oscar is a conductor on the Boston & Maine railroad, but he dearly loves Little Prince and in order to avail himself of the opportunity to drive the clever performer, Oscar draws down a leave of absence for four months from the B. & M. "I would rather sit in the sulky behind Little Prince than in a seat in the House of Lords," says Oscar, whose whistle is music to the ear of Tom Braden's money getter.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of the power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Joseph Piccardi to the Cosmopolitan Trust company, dated Jan. 22, 1918, and recorded with Middlesex North District Deeds Book 595, Page 593, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of enforcing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described on Friday, June 18, 1921, at three o'clock in the afternoon, the real estate conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows:

1. A certain lot of land together with the buildings thereon situated on the Southern part of the town of Tewksbury, in the County of Middlesex, on the Eastern side of the road leading from Lowell to Boston, containing about two acres, and two poles and being Lot No. 1 on a plan of a piece of woodland in Tewksbury, belonging to the heirs of Joseph Piccardi, deceased, by Joseph Piccardi, Surveyor, dated June 3, 1882, and recorded with Middlesex County North District Deeds, in Book No. 1, Plan 12, and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at the Northwest corner of the said road at Lot No. 10 on said plan, thence Easterly on said road No. 10, 35 rods, 20 links to Lot No. 11 on said plan, thence Southerly on Lot No. 11, 5 rods to Lot No. 2 on said plan, thence Westerly on said Lot No. 2, 35 rods, 20 links to the road above named, thence Northerly by the said road to the bound first named.

Being the same premises conveyed to said Joseph Piccardi by deed of Jacob L. Burdett, dated October 1, 1907, and recorded with said Deeds, in Book 412, Page 51.

2. A certain lot of land together with the buildings thereon situated on the Eastern side of the road leading from Lowell to Boston in said Tewksbury, containing about two acres and two rods, and being Lot No. 2 on the above mentioned plan, and bounded and described as follows:

LOWELL FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION

The next and last meeting of the Lowell Fish and Game association will be held on Tuesday evening, June 7, at 7:45 o'clock in the banquet hall, Odd Fellows Temple. The most important matter of business to come before the association will be the nomination and election of a president to serve out the unexpired term of the late president, Simon B. Harris. It will be a very difficult matter for the association to replace Mr. Harris, but there are several members who are capable of filling the office and whose interest in the association and what it stands for approximates that of the late president whose sudden demise on the evening of May 4 came a distinct shock to every member of the association.

Another item of business to come before the meeting on the evening of June 7 will be the selection of a date and place for the holding of the annual outing and dinner, and as this is the last meeting to be held until September, old members who have not paid their dues should "come across" and make the secretary happy. New members joining at this meeting will be given the outing privilege.

COMMENDATION FOR MERITORIOUS THESIS

A commendation for submitting the most meritorious thesis out of a class of 250 at B. U. School of Secretarial Science, was awarded to Miss Carolyn W. Pattillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pattillo, of 725 Bridge Street, at the commencement exercises of that institution held last Friday. Miss Pattillo's thesis, which treats of paper manufacture, will be printed and bound, while copies will be placed in the Boston public library and the library of Boston university. Graduating from Lowell high school with high honors, Miss Pattillo entered B. U., where recently she was chosen as a member of the special publicity class of the university. While at high school, she was awarded the Boston Traveler essay prize.

HERMANN "CHEAP SKATE," SAY YEGGS

CINCINNATI, June 1.—Four robbers bound the night watchman of the Cincinnati National League baseball park early yesterday morning, stole cash and stole $125. The robbers, displeased because of the comparatively small amount of money they found, informed the helpless watchman that "Garry" Hermann must be a "cheap skate."

Evidently the thieves believed they would find the receipts of the two baseball games in the safe. Instead, they got only the amount that was left for use as change by ticket sellers for yesterday's game.

PITCHER QUILTS WHEN FINED BY MANAGER

TORONTO, Ont., June 1.—Tommy Thompson, international league pitcher, today left the team after having been fined $100 by Manager Doyle for quitting to pitch at Rochester, last Sunday.

He declined to play because he had been required to sleep in an upper berth on the way to Rochester.

WILL MEET OUTFIT FROM NUTMEG STATE

Lowell Textile school will meet the Connecticut Anglers, the outfit which recently handed out a defeat to Brown university, next Friday afternoon on the Moody street campus. This will be the closing game of the season for Lowell and Coach McIntyre's men hope to ring down the curtain with a victory. The game will start at 2:30.

A HARLEY-DAVIDSON

The Harley-Davidson Motorcycle took all four events in the Memorial Day Hill Climb at Dunstable.

- FIRST IN—Open Side Car Event.
- FIRST IN—Professional Solo Event.
- FIRST IN—Amateur Solo Event.
- FIRST IN—Sport Model Event.

This excellent showing of the Harley-Davidson is most convincing, when it is considered that these events were conducted under the strict rules and regulations of the M. & A. T. A.

LOWELL MAN WINS MARATHON RACE

The ten-mile marathon race conducted in Meriden, Conn., Memorial day, under the auspices of the Business Men of that city, was won by Fred Couture of this city, while second honors went to Frank Russell of Derby, Conn. James Turner of New Haven, finished third.

There were 37 entries for the race and only 21 went over the course. Couture's time being 56 minutes, 25-3 seconds. The first six men received loving cups as prizes, while the others, who finished the race were awarded medals.

TEXTILE LEAGUE

The Boot Mills baseball nine defeated the Merrimack Mills Monday afternoon at the First street oval by the score 14 to 3. Lawson was on the mound for the Boot and was never in danger at any stage of the game while his team mates collected 19 hits from the upper mill boys' pitchers.

The home run of Stewart and the playing of Francis Cox and Johnson for the Boot, Winch, Dalgic, Hutson playing for the Merrimacks were the features of the game.

PLANTING VINE CROPS

Garden News Story from the Middlesex County Bureau of Agriculture and Home Economics

Pumpkins, squash and cucumbers should be planted this week as the ground has now become thoroughly warmed and there is little probability of much cold weather. As these vegetables cover considerable ground it is not a good practice to plant more than a few hills of cucumbers and summer squash if the garden space is limited.

Squash vine borers which destroyed the entire crop in so many gardens last year must also be taken into consideration or the chances of getting a good crop of winter squash and pumpkins are about as small as any vegetable that can be planted. When there is land enough to permit the planting of crops of this kind, and insect pests are controlled, pumpkins and winter squash can be depended upon to produce a very good yield.

The soil for all vine growing vegetables should be rich and in order to give the seeds a quick start a shovel full of well-rotted manure should be placed at the bottom of the hill. This should be covered with an inch of fine loam and a dozen seeds scattered over an area of one square foot. The seeds should then be covered to a depth of two inches. After the plants have started their second leaves, they should be thinned to four in a hill, being careful to leave the strongest plants and as far apart as possible.

Cucumbers should be planted in hills four feet apart each way. In small gardens they are frequently planted in drills and thinned to one every 12 in. when three inches high. Some good varieties are Arlington white spine, Davis Perfect and Boston Pickling.

Summer squash grow in bush form so they require no more area than cucumbers. It is very important that they be heavily fertilized in order to force rapid growth. Crookneck varieties give the most universal satisfaction.

Winter squash is very prolific and five or six hills will supply an average family. As the vines cover a great deal of ground they should be planted eight to ten feet apart each way. The best varieties are Delicious and Hubbard.

Sugar pumpkins are the only variety suitable for home gardens. Hills should be six feet apart each way. In order to economize space it is a good plan to plant all vine crops on the edge of the garden so that the vines can be trained to run out on the grass instead of taking up space in the garden that might be used for other crops.

French and Turks in Guerilla Warfare

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Guerilla warfare between French and Turkish nationalist troops has been renewed in Cilicia. The Turks are preparing to recapture the city of Aintab from the French, while nationalist leaders are being arrested by the French authorities. Henry Franklin-Rouillon, former member of the French chamber of deputies, who has been in this city some time, and had intended to go to Angora, will not proceed to the seat of the Turkish nationalist government because of the possibility that he might be held hostage there.

$100 FINE FOR ILLEGAL SALE OF LIQUOR

Manuel Caires pleaded guilty in police court today to the illegal sale of liquor on May 31 and was fined $100. His counsel asked for time in which to pay, and Judge Enright then continued the case one week for sentence.

MILL EMPLOYEES ARE CLEVER PERFORMERS

The minstrel show recently conducted by the Massachusetts Association of the Mill Industrial and Social Club, was so successful and the talent of the various amateurs so pronounced, that the attention of leaders of the American League in various parts of the state has been attracted with the result that the company, or a part of it, has been signed up to tour what is known as the Legion circuit.

These amateurs are all employees of the Massachusetts mills and they form one of the best group of performers seen in this city in a long time. Among them are comedians as well as singers, clever comedians as well as dancers of rare ability and they have a supply of entertainment numbers on hand that will rival many professional companies.

Inasmuch as the legion circuit calls for male performers only, the women of the Massachusetts Association have been dropped from the cast and the following company has been organized: Martin Maguire, James Deignan, Jack McArdle, Frank Kelly, William McGrath, James Walker, Robert Oates, Charles Mathewson, Edward Donohue and Thomas Grouke, the latter to act as interloper. Their first engagement will be at Haverhill, then they will perform at Newburyport, Milford, N. H., and Manchester, N. H. and it is expected that before these engagements are filled, other calls will be received.

ham and his men were welcomed warmly. All were well although they had lost their effects with their ship. They were taken to the hospital and the rescue ship Elsie prepared to leave again for the fishing ground, satisfied that the Esperanto's crew would receive all possible care.

Captain Alden Geel told the first story of the Esperanto's end. The ship was fishing off Sable Island Monday morning, he said, when she struck a sunken wreck. Water rushed in at once, and the schooner began to settle. In less than 20 minutes her hold was flooded and Captain Benham had been forced to order her abandoned. The crew had to leave so hastily that nothing could be taken.

The Elsie's skipper said he learned of the disaster only when the Esperanto's men boarded his vessel three hours later.

The men had rowed about three miles from the scene of the sinking in a thick fog, and strong breeze. Capt. Benham said he set out early Monday morning from off the north-west light of Sable Island to a position off the northwest bar in search of fish. The weather was thick, finding the fishing poor there, he made for the southwest bar.

It was on this course in nine fathoms of water that the Esperanto struck the submerged wreck, ripping off her bowsprit. The craft filled quickly and the crew had just enough time to get into the dories.

After rowing for an hour the fog cleared and the Elsie was seen at the middle station three miles to the eastward. After taking the Esperanto's crew aboard the Elsie stood by the wreck remaining in the vicinity for an hour.

Captain Geel said he believed a wireless report would be made and for this reason he did not finally set out for Halifax until Monday night. With light headwinds confronting him, he was unable to make port before this morning.

Gloucester Rejoices
GLOUCESTER, June 1.—Gloucester was glad today. Word of the safety of Captain Benham and all hands of the Esperanto, landed at Halifax, N. S., by the schooner Elsie, was received with relief. A good ship had gone, the queen of the fleet, but with those aboard saved, the loss came easier.

The circumstances of the Esperanto going to sea were contained nothing of discredit to Gloucester or its ships. It was not a failure of the ship to function, no error of navigation nor of judgment, no lack of strength, in sails or hull. The word received by the Gorton-Pew Fishing Co., according to Russell Smith, one of the owners, was that the Esperanto went down after striking a submerged wreck.

With the schooner Elsie, a member of the same fleet, she was fishing off Sable Island Sunday. The Esperanto struck the sunken wreckage sharply, a hole was caused, she filled, and within 20 minutes of the accident had sunk. The Elsie took aboard Captain Benham and all his men and landed them at Halifax this morning.

To his report of the loss of the Esperanto, Captain Benham added a request for another vessel that he might remain on the fishing grounds.

To his report of the loss of the Esperanto, Captain Benham added a request for another vessel that he might remain on the fishing grounds.

"Any show for another vessel to start all over again? Am holding the crew," the message said.

Benjamin A. Smith, vessels manager for the Gorton-Pew company, answered immediately saying: "Yes, we will have another vessel for you."

Mr. Smith said that no schooner was available in port at the moment but that as soon as one arrived, it probably would be sent to Halifax with a skeleton crew to be turned over to Captain Benham.

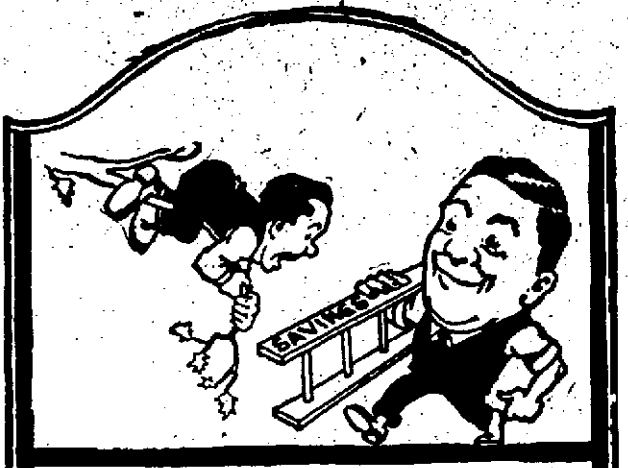

The cause of the accident was described by Captain Benham in his report as "south from Northwest light." It was very foggy and his vessel went down in nine fathoms of water, he said.

FISHERMEN MADE BIG HAUL IN IPSWICH BAY

A group of employees of the Boston & Maine car shops in Billerica, who are now enjoying a forced vacation because of the plant running on short time, went on a deep sea fishing trip at Ipswich yesterday and this morning one of the party reported that the day's sport netted 100 pounds of fish. There were fourteen young men in the party, some from Lowell and others from Billerica, Woburn and Woburn and all spent a most enjoyable day. The "Bertha" and "Billy" and from their decks in Ipswich bay they enjoyed the sport to their hearts' content. The men remained out several hours and when they returned to shore they had more fish than they could carry. The Lowell men in the party were Arthur G. Gouss, Paul Chandler, James Conroy, Thomas Gilchrist, Edmund Fontaine, Donat Picard and others.

THE SELFISHNESS OF GIVING
A man of our acquaintance was once praised for his generosity. He denied that he gave because he was generous in giving. He insisted that he was absolutely selfish in giving. He gave because it gave him pleasure to give.
But isn't that the real reason for giving—to give something to somebody because you want to give that particular thing to that particular person? That is where the pleasure of giving comes in, and if that kind of pleasure is selfish let us all be selfish.
Surprise gifts are a delight to both the person who chooses the gift and the person who receives it. There is a friendliness about a gift sent on an affectionate impulse which enhances its charm.
Cherished for years are the gifts of the bride and graduate. Such gifts are life-long treasures inseparably associated with the eventful day of weddings and graduations.
You will find many gift suggestions in our shop. Whether the amount you wish to invest in the selfishness of giving be large or small, you will find something which will fit both your desire and your purse.
This store, for almost a century, has been looked upon as the Gift Shop of Lowell and vicinity.
The name "Raynes" on a gift package has the same deep significance as the word "Sterling" on silver. May we have the pleasure?

Stephen Kearney and City Solicitor William D. Regan were also present. The company agreed to keep the bridge open to traffic and it was brought out emphatically that the firm had no intention or desire to shirk any portion of its contract. In suggesting a curtailment of traffic, the company believed that the city would be saved needless expense but for the present no such curtailment will be in effect. The conference was held simply to give all the parties concerned an opportunity to get each other's viewpoint. It took place at the request of Mr. Mahony. Originally it was thought that he desired a public hearing on the matter, but upon his arrival in Lowell today he said that he simply wanted to talk the matter over in an informal way with representatives of the city government. The municipal council voted yesterday to hold a hearing on the matter next Tuesday morning, but inasmuch as Mr. Mahony received all the information he desired today, the hearing scheduled for next week will not take place.
